CHEST WORKERS ARE NEARING GOAL

Early Construction Of New Postoffice Here Forecast

ENGINEER TO VISIT HERE DECEMBER 3

150 FOOT FRONTAGE

No Details Available Now But Belief Prevalent Building Starts Soon

EARLY PURCHASE of a site for a federal building at Santa Ana was indicated here today in word received in this city from W. A. Newman, district engineer in charge of United States public buildings.

According to the information received here Newman, who has had the matter of the Santa Ana federal structure under consideration for some time, will visit Santa Ana on December 3 for the purpose of accepting offers on proposed sites.

The property desired, Newman revealed, would be a tract of approximately 28,000 square feet with a frontage of 150 feet.

While no details were available of the date of beginning of construction, Newman said it was not the policy of the department to purchase real estate and hold it for any considerable time before building.

Postmaster T. E. Stephenson has for some weeks been anticipating a visit here by Newman to look over prospective sites for a federal building. Congressman Phil Swing at the last session of congress was successful in getting an appropriation of $250,000 for a building here.

Stephenson went north Wednesday to attend the Stanford-California game tomorrow and while away expected to call on Newman in San Francisco and urge him to come to Santa Ana for inspection of sites here. While it is understood that a number of locations are available, it is said that no definite propositions have been submitted to the post office department.

40 CASES CONFRONT STATE BAR HEADS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Governors of the state bar today faced a calendar of 40 disciplinary cases, after having acted on thre Los Angeles matters in their first session under the leadership of President Thomas G. Ridway.

Howell Richardson and Benjamin Elconin, Los Angeles, were ordered disbarred for conspiracy to dismiss a statutory charge against Lewis H. Allen and dividing $5000 cash bail.

Charges arising from the same case against Forrest Murray, Los Angeles chief deputy district attorney, were dismised on recommendation of the Los Angeles Bar association.

OFFICERS NAMED BY NATIONAL FARMERS

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 23.—(UP)—The 1929 convention of the National Farmers' union will be held in Omaha, it was decided at the final session of the group here yesterday.

C. E. Huff, of Salina, Kans., was named president to succeed O. S. Barrett, Atlanta, Ga., president for 22 years.

Joseph Atkinson, of South Dakota, will succeed Huff as vice president and J. J. O'Shay, of Rogers, Mont., was named secretary.

BOULDER DAM REPORT FAVORABLE TO BILL

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS MAP OUT STIFF PROGRAM FOR SESSION ON DEC. 3

By PAUL R. MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—An ambitious program of legislation has been mapped out by congressional leaders for the short session of congress opening December 3.

Farm relief, tariff revision, Boulder dam, naval cruisers, the anti-war treaty and a dozen appropriation bills all are being listed on the bulging schedule.

The situation concerning each of these subjects is outlined by the congressional authorities as follows:

Farm Relief

A revised McNary-Haugen bill without the equalization fee is to be introduced in the senate while the house agriculture committee is getting to work on a group of individual bills to provide co-operative marketing facilities and a federal farm board to aid in disposal of surplus crops. All farm bills when ready will be given priority.

Tariff

An effort will be made to have the house ways and means committee start to work on a tariff revision bill designed primarily to aid eastern textile and farm products. Few believe this bill will be read before the short session adjourns March 4.

Boulder Dam

The Johnson bill, now the unfinished business in the senate is expected to pass early in the session. Its author, Senator Johnson, Rep., Calif., is ill however, and may permit the senate to consider at the outset the naval cruisers bill.

Naval Cruisers

The house bill providing 15 new 10,000 ton cruisers has been given a place right behind the Johnson bill and if Johnson is unable to press his measure, the naval bill may be passed before Christmas. There is strong opposition to the measure.

Anti-War Treaty

This treaty will be submitted by the state department at the start of the session and considered by the foreign relations committee. Chairman Borah expects early action. There is no opposition so far.

Muscle Shoals

Effort will be made to revive the old Madden bill accepting the bid of the American Cyanamid company, but such a move will be fought by Senator Norris of Nebraska, who is awaiting a supreme court decision to determine if the government operation bill is a law despite President Coolidge's pocket veto of it.

Appropriations

Some appropriation bills already are being prepared by house committees and will be ready for presentation as soon as congress meets. Leaders plan to get all appropriation bills out of the way early so no filibusters can be instituted against them at the close of the short session.

HOOVER PARTY RUNS INTO HOT TROPICAL WIND

Decks Cots Pressed Into Service For Relief of President-Elect

By THOMAS L. STOKES
United Press Staff Correspondent

ABOARD U.S.S. MARYLAND, AT SEA, Nov. 23.—Awnings over the spacious quarter deck of the Maryland sheltered President-elect Herber Hoover today as he sought a cool spot to prepare his Latin American speeches.

The entire party was getting its first taste of tropical sun as heat hung oppressively about the big batleship.

The rollers in thep rinting shop melted in the heat and publication of the ship newspapers was held up until the rollers were hardened again in the refrigerators. Hard hearted sailors of the Maryland's crew said, concerning the heat:

"You ain't seen nothing yet."

Last night, deck cots were distributed to members of the Hoover party and everyone slept on deck—the heat below was intense.

Rugged and mountainous, the coast of Mexico was visible most of the day, and Mrs. Hoover who sat knitting on the deck, went to the ship's side and scanned the barren mountain ranges, exclaiming over the beauty of some snow capped peak rearing itself miles

$3,000,000 MERGER INVOLVES AIR LINES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—(UP)—A $3,000,000 merger, whereby the Aero Corporation of California, Inc., took over Standard Air Lines, the assets of Master Aircraft and the old California Aero corporation, has been announced by officials of the new company.

The expansion program initiated by Stnadard Air Lines will be carried on under the new plan, it was said. The tri-weekly pasenger service between Los Angeles, Phoenix and Tucson will be maintained and all Arizona and California branches of the company will be enlarged.

SOFIA THREATENED BY REVOLT LEADER

BELGRADE, Nov. 23.—(UP)—The Macedonian revolutionist leader, Vantcha Michaeloff, has threatened to lead Macedonian freebooters on a march against Sofia, it was reported here today, unless Bulgarian authorities annul repressive measures against Macedonians.

REGISTER TO GIVE COMPLETE SERVICE ON S. A.-MOOR GAME

Can't go to Alhambra tomorrow to see the Santa Ana-Alhambra championship football game? Too bad, but The Register will take care of you!

The Register has made arrangements for direct telephone connections between its editorial offices and the football field at Alhambra where Register representatives will be stationed to dictate a running play-by-play story of the contest. These returns will be megaphoned at The Register building as soon as they are received. Service will begin shortly after 2 p. m., the big game itself opening at 2:15 p. m.

The Register also will announce results of the Stanford-California and U. S. C.-Idaho games as well as important football games in various parts of the country.

Persons telephoning The Register for football information of any kind are requested to call 1050 or 60.

Senator King Sees Passage Is Certainty

Engineer Commission Finds Swing-Johnson Measure Entirely Feasible

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—(UP)—The report of an engineering commission appointed by President Coolidge to investigate feasibility of the Swing-Johnson boulder dam bill was belived today to be faverable to the measure.

This conclusion was reached by interested legislators following a prediction by Senator King, Dem., Utah, one of the most active opponents of the bill, that it will be pased at the short session of congress.

King's announcement that further opposition to the bill seems futile was made after a visit to the White House where it is assumed he either saw a digest of the report which was placed in Mr. Coolidge's hands several days ago or was told of its contents.

The commission was appointed last spring at the suggestion of congress and worked all summer, studying both the engineering and economic feasibility of the Colorado river irrigation and hydro-electric power project provided for in the Swing-Johnson bill.

Its report will be completed before congress convenes Dec. 3, it is understood, and incorporated by Mr. Coolidge in his annual message. It probably will not be made public until then as Mr. Coolidge has indicated he feels it should be confidential meantime.

PATROLMAN KILLED BY BANDIT SUSPECTS

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 23.—(UP)—Stumbling into the hiding place of two suspected holdups, Patrolman Harry R. Ohle was killed and Patrolman R. K. Evans was wounded, seriously, shortly before midnight last night while searching for illicit liquor.

The officers, members of the "bootleg squad," went to the home of Mrs. Louvenie Reese, Negress, to search for liquor. Opening a door into a bedroom the patrolmen were greeted by a fusillade of shots.

Mrs. Reese was wounded, probably fatally.

The two suspects escaped.

TWO OF FOUR BANK BANDITS CAPTURED

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23.—(INS)—Two of the four bandits who held up the First National bank at Trafford City early today and escaped with approximately $18,000 were captured in Duquesne, a suburb, a short time later, with O. M. Kimmell, whom they kidnaped at the time of the holdup.

The men had $1000 of the loot with them and Kimmell said that the other two of the four bandits alighted from the car at McKeesport. The car was headed toward Pittsburgh when police stopped it.

PROGRESSPAYMENTS FOR PEACH GROWERS

FRESNO, Nov. 23. — (UP)—"Progres" payments on figs and peaches, the amount to be made known in a few days, will be made by the California Peach and Fig Growers' association, according to announcement today by E. I. Feemster, president, following a meeting of the board of directors.

Growers so far have received four cents a pound for grade A peaches and two and one-half cents for grade A figs.

Deliveries of fruit to the association have virtually been completed, Feemster said.

CONDITION OF KING GEORGE WORSE TODAY

Duke of York Returns to London to Be at Bed Of His Father

BY KEITH JONES

LONDON, Nov. 23.—(UP)—The Duke of York, second son of the king, returned to London today from northampton to be near the bedside of his father who is ill with a severe cold and congestion of the lungs.

The duke left London last night to poin the Duchess of York and the mamy Princess Elizabeth at Naseby hall.

About noon, Lord Dawson of Penn, physician in-ordinary to the king and Sir Stanley Hewett, surgeon apothecary to the king, issued a bulletin indicating that the king's illness had taken a turn for the worse. The trend of the King's condition was described as a "slight extension of the mischief in the king's lungs.

Within the royal household there appeared to be complete calm and the houtine of the palace seemed to be carried on in its usual quiet unpretenious way.

WORLD'S GUNNERY MARK ESTABLISHED

SAN PEDRO, Calif., Nov. 23.—(UP)—A new world's gunnery record was made during the recent short range battle practice of the United States battle-fleet, it has been announced here. Average scores of the entire dreadnaught squadron eualled the highest score made by any battleship in last year's practice, officials said.

Four of the leading dreadnaughts ran up scores well above the theoretically perfect score, it was reported.

New records were also established aboard the light cruiser Omaha, and by the fleet destroyer [illegible] according to official [illegible]

Columbia Army Flyer Off On Long Trip

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(INS)—Lieut. Benjamin Mendez, crack flyer of the Columbia army, hopped off this morning from the Rockaway naval air station on the first leg of his flight to Bogota, Columbia. The first stop will be at Jacksonville, Fla.

Mendez plans a good-will flight of 4,600 miles. He hopes to make the flight in five hops, in as many days, weather permitting.

ORANGE HOUSE SENDS OUT BIG DIVIDEND CUT

ORANGE, Nov. 23 With the payment of pool No. 5 to members of the Santiago Orange Growers association, payments to th egrowers will total $1,578,412.38 to date, this season, it was announced here yesterday by R. E. Gross, manager of the association.

Pool No. 5 represents shipments of 1077 cars or 70,724 packed boxes during the period extending from September 10 to October 10. Actual payments to the growers for this pool totals $382,899.95.

With the payment of pool six, which includes the off bloom fruit it is expected that the total paid to the growers for the season of 1928 will reach approximately $1,610,000, Gross states. This sum is the net return to growers fro both navel and valencia crops marketed through the association channels.

The 1928 crop is about 65 per cent of that of 1927, according to Gross and the higher price paid for fruit this year will bring the total returns for the season just slightly under those of last year when a bumper crop was harvested. Last year's returns [illegible] approxi[illegible]

AUTOS COLLIDE ON NORTH MAIN STREET TODAY

Hondo Man Believed May Be Fatally Injured—Fails to Heed Sign

G. D. NIXON, Hondo, Calif., was probably fatally injured at 5 o'clock this morning, when the automobile he was driving collided with a machine driven by F. M. Prodger, 206 1-2 North Broadway, at Seventeenth and North Main streets, according to a report filed with the city police.

He was taken to the Orange county hospital, where attendants said today that his condition was critical. Nixon is believed to have suffered a broken back, it was said.

The Nixon machine was traveling east on Seventeenth street and Prodger was driving his car north on Main street at the time. Nixon failed to make the boulevard stop at the intersection, which was given as cause for the accident, by police officers.

DAM PROJECT BEFORE ARIZONA LAWMAKERS

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 23.—(UP)—Early action on the Boulder canyon dam controversy appeared certain at the state capitol as the Arizona state legislature, meeting in special session, convened today.

Pamphlets entitled "The Colorado River Question," issued by the Colorado river commission, have been distributed among the legislators. Observers predicted legislation appropriating additional funds to back the state's fight against passage of the Swing-Johnson bill and adoption of another memorial to congress setting forth Arizona's views of the question.

Over $4000 Reported Toported at Luncheon—More Than 2700 Pledge

SATURDAY MEET OFF

Grand Total of $35,648 Now Pledged—Meeting To Be Held on Monday

DETERMINED to carry on the community chest campaign until every dollar is subscribed, Chairman Clyde Downing and the leaders of the campaign today announced that the campaign would be extended until Tuesday of next week. Plans are being formulated for a tremendous community rally on Tuesday at which time there is no question in the minds of the leaders but that they can announce complete success of the undertaking.

The final report luncheon of this week for Saturday has been cancelled in order to give way to the more comprehensive plans outlined by Chairman Downing. In cancelling tomorrow's luncheon the leaders recognize that because of the Santa Ana-Alhambra football game which will take a large number of workers and also because of the fact that many of the leaders have already left for the Stanford-University of California game at Berkeley, the workers would not be able to make a final satisfactory report. Arrangements are being made for a luncheon on Monday noon and a final report on Tuesday noon.

In making the change in plans Col. S. H. Finley and Mrs. F. M. Coulter assured Chairman Downing that the workers would continue their efforts and stick loyally to the job until the final report on Tuesday.

At today's luncheon $4,417.86 was reported, bringing the total up to $35,648.. This leaves $13,982 yet to be secured before Tuesday night. Seventy percent of the total set has been secured. The total number of subscribers so far was 2756.

The luncheon today was presided over by W. H. Spurgeon jr., who is regarded by Santa Ana as founder of the chest and one who has given unhesitatingly of his efforts for its success.

The Knights of the Round Table met with the community chest workers today and the musical program was arranged by the Round Table in co-operation with W. B. Martin, chairman of the headquarters committee, and consisted of trombone selections by Prof. D. C. Cianfoni and vocal numbers by Hugh Runnels, with

UNITED DAUGHTERS SELECT OFFICERS

HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 23.—(INS)—The 35th annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy today turned its attention to unfinished business, following the election of officers yesterday and the colorful historical evening activities last night.

New officers elected were Mrs. Rudolph Frederick Blankenburg, San Diego, Calif., second vice president general, and Miss Marian Sally, Orangeburg, S. C., historian. All other officers were re-elected.

S. A. Camp Grounds Will Be Improved

MORE SITES TO BE CLEARED AT FOREST HOME

Following inspection of the city's camp grounds at Forest Home by members of the city council, city board of supervisors and prominent men of the county, Wednesday, W. G. Knox, city manager, said today that plans would be made for further improvement of the camp sites before the opening of the season next summer.

The men visiting the site were impressed with the possibility of establishing camp grounds there that would be of service to residents of Santa Ana, as use of the site is limited to residents of this city.

Knox said that the camp sites available were occupied all the time last summer and that it is the purpose of the council to have more sites cleared and levelled for the next summre. Better roads will be built and it is possible that a public shower will be established.

The ground is rough and rocky and it is the intention of the council to do a little work each year to increase the facilities and conveniences, the city manager said.

The annual frolic of the city council and board of supervisors at the angling club on Wednesday was a repetition of the success of previous annual outings by the group.

Members of the party had the sport of catching their own trout and many had their first experience in angling. Frank Lamar and Dr. F. W. Slabaugh were the chefs and proved experts in cooking the fish to a crisp turn that pleased the palates of all the hungry men.

In the party were City Councilmen F. L. Purinton, W. J. Kelly, Elmer Chaney, City Clerk Ed Vesty, City Engineer, Clyde Jennings, City Manager W. G. Knox, Supervisors William Schumacher, George Jeffrey and Willard Smith, District Attorney Z. B. West, County Horticultural Commissioner A. A. Brock, Sheriff Sam Jernigan, County Purchasing Agent Dr. F. W. Slabaugh, Superintendent of the County Garage Frank Lamar, Superintendent of County Highways Nat Neff, Supervisor-elect Charles H. Chapman, County Clerk J. M. Backs, Farm Adviser Harold Wahlberg, Flood Control Engineer Paul Bailey, County Health Officer Dr. K. H. Sutherland and Coroner C. D. Brown, Fred Backs, R. J. behind the coast ranges. Now and then a lonely boat was visible.

Mrs. Hoover was an amused spectator at deck golf games which were played throughout the day by many of the party and she applauded vigorously the skill of Ambassador Henry P. Fletchear, who joined in the play.

Hoover had completed some of his addresses, it was understood, and all of them probably will be brief. After dinner last night the president-elect relaxed and the entire party enjoyed the moving pictures. "Ben Hur" was shown at Hoover's special request.

Today was "field day" on board the big flagship of the Pacific fleet—a day the blue jackets like to see behind them. Last night they set up the chant of the sailor's work rule:

"For six days do all that thou art able.

"And on the seventh, holy stone the deck and coil cable."

Since time immemorial, "Holy stoning" the deck has been the bane of sailor's existence. With a heavy brick pumice composition on the end of a stick, 110 men scrub the teakwood decks on the Maryland for three hours.

There was speculation among the sailors whether Hoover, an efficiency engineer, would favor the use of machines over the historical method. On trans-atlantic liners, they said, two men use a machine and clean the decks in a day.

The weather continues clear and calm, as the Maryland heads down the Mexican seaboard, bowing slightly to the long Pacific ground swells.

Officials were studying a plan to make possible advance distribution of Hoover's speeches, but no announcement was made as to the method decided upon.

JACOBSON WITNESS BEFORE GRAND JURY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—(UP)—Once again considering the morals charge arest of City Councilman Carl L. Jacobson, the grand jury today called Jacobson as a witness.

When he left the chamber, Jacobson declined to answer questions but did say he gave the jury a letter written to him by a figure in the investigation.

The jury's probe is directed to the contention of Jacobson who claims his arrest a year ago was the result of a plot between Mrs. Callie Grimes, in whose bedroom he was taken, police officials and underworld leaders.

the Duke of York, nothing at the palace would have indicated that anything out of the ordinary was happening.

Queen Mary entertained the Earl of Athlone, governor general of South Africa and the Countess of Athlone at dinner last night. They left after the dinner for Southampton to sail for South Africa. With them when they departed were their daughter Lady May Cambridge and Princess Sibylle of Saxe-Coburg Gotha.

The name of Lady Hay frequently has been linked with gossip of a possible marriage with her cousin the Prince of Wales.

The Prince of Wales, for whom the cry of "The king is dead, long live the king" will next be uttered throughout the British empire, is now at Dodona Center, a white settlement in the Tanganyikan highlands in dark frica. He is on a goodwill tour of his father's African dominions. The prince still lacks knowledge of his father's conditon, it being argued that too hasty news might unduly alarm him.

S. L. Rothafel, better known to the radio audiences as "Roxy," in his six years of broadcasting has received about 4,000,000 letters from radio fans. The majority of these letters, according to "Roxy," comes from small towns.

Agricultural members of the French parliament have asked that body to appropriate a special fund to be loaned farmers desiring to install radio sets.

ORANGE COUNTY SOON TO HAVE EGG INSPECTOR

Upon approval by Gov. C. C. Young of the selection of an inspector, Orange county will begin a movement for the enforcement of the state law regulating the marketing of eggs, it was announced today by Assistant Farm Advisor W. M. Cory.

The poultry department of the Orange County Farm bureau last night appointed A. H. Klein, of Anaheim, as inspector for this section. It is expected that the governor will confirm the appointment. According to Cory, Governor Young has promised to vest such inspectors with authority to enforce the law.

If enforced, the law would react to the benefit of producers as well as consumers, it was agreed at last night's session, at which W. C. Childers, of Santa Ana, chairman of the poultry department, presided.

Upon receipt of instructions from Governor Young, the first step in the enforcement proceedings will be to familiarize dealers with standards required by the law and to solicit their co-operation in making it successful, Cory said.

After January 1 it is possible that Klein will be supported by deputies and that the position will be put on a salary basis, according to Cory. Klein is one of the first of such inspectors to be appointed and his selection came as a result of work done by the regional poultry department in the seven southern counties of the state.

Cory outlined today the three classes into which eggs are to be grouped according to law. Eggs labelled "fresh" must exclude all processed, cold storage, artificially clean and incubator eggs. These are what are called U. S. Specials.

Ranch eggs, or U. S. Extras, must meet requirements of law specifying that they contain not more than one eighth of an inch of air space.

Those in the third group, known as U. S. Standards, must be marked to indicate that they are of lower quality with such words as "held," stored,." "astern" and so on. Eggs below this group are not held to be fit for the consumptive market. Baskets labelled "fresh eggs" must meet the U. S. Special requirements. Those labelled simply "eggs" must meet U. S. Extra standards.

"Large" eggs must weigh 24 ounces per dozen on the average, with a 22-ounce minimum. "Medium," or "pullet," eggs must weigh 20 ounces with a minimum of 18 ounces. "Small," or "pewee," eggs must weigh 16 ounces per dozen on the average with a 15-ounce minimum.

6 LAKE FISHERMEN RESCUED FROM ISLE

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 23.—(UP)—Six Lake Manitoba fishermen, who were driven from shore on a small ice floe Tuesday afternoon, were rescued from a small island on the eastern side of the lake last night.

Five of the men were fishing through the ice near the west shore when it was broken by a heavy wind. As they were being blown out into the lake a sixth man went to their rescue, but the gale prevented them from reaching shore.

Taking refuge on an island, they spent two days there until rescued by Thomas Freeman, a resident of the east side of the lake.

MONTGOMERY'S ARRAIGNMENT IS POSTPONED

For the first time since the inquest was held last Saturday into the death of John D. Callicot, 40, and Orlie R. Mahon, 40, Sunset Beach duck hunters, J. W. Montgomery, 55, who killed them with two rifle shots on Thursday last week, appeared in public today in Superior Judge H. G. Ames' court.

Montgomery, a special officer and guard at the California Gun club, where he put the bullets through the bodies of Callicot and Mahon, came into court this morning for arraignment following his indictment on two murder counts by the grand jury yesterday.

Dressed in a gray flannel shirt and gray trousers, Montgomery sat quietly in his chair and watched with mild interest the proceedings in several other criminal matters taken up by the court before his case was called. He communicated with no one. His eyes had a tired look in them. One of his hands turned a pen over and over on the table before him.

Then the court announced that he was to be arraigned. L. A. West who, with B. Z. McKinney, represents Montgomery, asked for a continuance in the arraignment. Deputy District Attorney Sam L. Collins made no objection. Arraignment was continued to 9:30 a. m. Monday. It was pointed out that reporters have not been able to complete a transcript of the testimony before the grand jury, which is necessary in proceeding with the arraignment.

JOHNSON NOT TO SIDETRACK MEASURE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—(UP)—Sen. Hiram Johnson will not surrender precedence of his Boulder dam bill in the senate to the naval cruiser bill, as Washington dispatches said he might because of sickness.

In a statement to the United Press today, Johnson said:

"It's all rot." "I am leaving tonight and I will be on hand Tuesday to carry the bill through."

Johnson was ill last week, confined to his hotel apartment by an attack of influenza, but has been busy in his office for the past several days.

There is a will among the leaders of the campaign to put the community chest over the top without any reservations this year, and the spirit and interest of the community this year is such that we feel confident it can be done by having a little more time to round out the plans that we are formulating, to assure success."

At today's luncheon special mention was made of the splendid work that is being done on the part of the Santa Ana public schools. It was stated that with the exception of three schools that a complete report had been received and a total subscription from teachers and students amounted to $3242.61. This is $70 more than was subscribed last year, with three schools yet to be heard from.

Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules Keep You Healthy

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time regardless of how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their systems. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping and harm to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to a druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose that night and you will feel like a

Deaths

A WORD OF COMFORT

The secret of the lives of those who have rendered enduring service to humanity seems to lie in two elements of character. They strove for what they really valued, not for what others defined as precious, and they were willing to pay the price for what they sincerely sought. The fact that others say that a touch with God is the goal of life means nothing to you, unless you really want it, badly enough to be ready to make everything else give way before it. When that desire becomes dominant you will be on the road to triumph over doubt and difficulty and heartache.

SCHWARTZ—In Santa Ana, November 22, 1928, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Schwartz, age 73 years. She is survived by three brothers, William Berg of Iowa, George Berg, Connecticutt and John Berg of Los Angeles, and one cousin, Mrs. George Roth of Santa Ana. Funeral services will be held at the Harrell and Brown Funeral home, 116 West Seventeenth street, at 10 o'clock tomorrow, the Rev. O. W. Reinius officiating. Commital services at Evergreen Crematory, Los Angeles.

RECEIPT FOR THEFT

MOSCOW, Nov. 23.—(UP) — A thief has been appealed to through an advertisement in "Izvestia" here to send a "receipt" for an accounting ruler stolen some time ago. The "ad" follows:

"THIEF who stole at house number 126, Leningrad Road, in June, 1928, a Wichman accounting ruler, belonging to Dreyer, a student of the Moscow Technical Institute, is begged to send a receipt to the following address: Moscow, Garahovskaya st. 16. The Trade Union committee refuses to give me a new ruler without such a receipt."

PEOPLE URGED TO AVOID ALL ASSEMBLAGES

Responsibility for preventing the spread of influenza in Orange county was put squarely on the shoulders of every man, woman and child in Orange county today, when Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, urged that, for the present, public gatherings be avoided and pointed out that the situation can be handled successfully only through co-operation of every individual in observance of health principles.

Al though the Fullerton grammar schools, the La Habra and Placentia schools were closed today, Dr. Sutherland indicated that there was reason to be optimistic providing whole hearted co-operation was put forth.

Since the start of the epidemic, November 1, 515 cases have been reported in the county. Yesterday 122 new cases were recorded. However, this does not mean necessarily that 515 cases now are in existnce, for many of those first announced probably have recovered, he stated. On the other hand many light cases, unreported to physicians, may be in existence, it was said.

Economic Loss

"The epidemic is to be regretted because of the economic loss of time which results from the prevalent illness," Dr. Sutherland said. "Early isolation is the most effective method known for preventing disease and the success of the isolation measures in this disease depends a great deal more upon the co-operation of the individual citizen than upon the utmost effort of the health department or similar organization engaged in disease prevention.

"The medical profession has no laboratory means of distinguishing 'flu' from a bad cold, nor is there any laboratory means of telling when a case commences or ceases to be contagious. Further, it sometimes is difficult to distinguish between 'flu' and grippe by physical signs and symptoms, so at a time like this all colds should come under suspicion and be strictly isolated until there has been no temperature for at least 48 hours and until symptoms of acute illnes have disappeared.

"We urge that for the present, public gatherings be avoided and that there be no visiting of those sick with bed colds and special care be taken to keep up the natural body resistance by securing sufficient rest and proper attention to other physical needs. Suppression of the present epidemic depends almost entirely upon the co-operation of the general public and the health department asks this co-operation."

Should Observe Pupils

So far as the health situation is concerned, Dr. Sutherland said that he could see no reason for closing of schools at the present time. If every teacher will observe pupils daily and send to their homes those who have colds, leaving the well children in school by themselves, the problem will be better taken care of than if the youngsters were to be lemt free to roam the streets, according to Dr. Sutherland.

The chief reason for closing of schools is economic for, when attendance falls so low that the districts are losing money, it is thought advisable to close the schools and work overtime later when attendance is normal, said Dr. Sutherland.

In Anaheim the situation is slightly improved, with the high school attendance about normal, according to reports today, despite the fact that 77 new cases were reported from there yesterday. Outside cities, 10 cases were reported in the county. In other localities the cases were as follows:

Brea, 15; Fullerton, four; Huntington Beach, one; La Habra, two; Orange, 13; Placentia, two; Santa Ana, 25; Tustin, one.

Dr. Sutherland pointed out that the influenza had caused but one death in the county so far as reports at the health office showed. The economic loss and inconvenience are the chief factors to be taken into account throughout the county so far, he said.

FRENCH CONSUL TO BE PRESENT AT VETS' BALL

Evidence that distinguished people invited to be guests of honor at the military ball to be given December 5, at St. Ann's Inn, by the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, will be on hand was seen today when Jack Fisher, commander of the unit, announced receipt of the first acceptance from representatives of foreign nations.

From the French consulate in Los Angeles came the acceptance today of N. Didot, French consul.

"I accept with great pleasure your kind invitation to attend the military ball...." said the consul.

Another distinguished Frenchman who will be at the ball is Capt. Arthur St. Rimie, also of Los Angeles, a veteran soldier who has spent 35 years in the service of France in various parts of the world and who has been decorated many times.

According to Fisher, approximately 70 formal invitations have been sent to noted people in the army, navy and air service of the United States, as well as to distinguished foreign representatives in this country.

Police News

Robert Darnell, 38, of 518 East First street, Los Angeles, was brought to the county jail late yesterday by Fullerton officers, having been sentenced to serve 75 days or pay a fine of $75 on a charge of possession of liquor. He was tried in Fullerton.

$500 Bail Set In Non-Support Case

R. P. Gates, 21, of 601 South Broadway, Santa Ana, arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff Harry Carter on a charge of non-support of minor child, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning. The examining trial was set for 9 a. m., November 27, and bail was fixed at $500.

BRITISH EDUCATOR SPEAKER AT BEACH

John Adames, noted British educator, who is taking a special course at U. S. C., was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Orange County Principals and Teachers association in Huntington Beach last night. His topic was "The Limitation of the Imagination."

F. L. Thurston, executive of the California Teachers' association, talked on "Teachers' Retirement." R. P. Mitchell, county superintendent, gave a short talk.

Lawrence Honnold, 8, gave whistling numbers. Pupils of the elementary school, under the direction of Miss Frances Van Horn, sang. Pupils of Miss Mary Cannon presented a tumbling act.

CHOOSING FOUR BOOKS TO LIVE WITH BAFFLING

you had to choose four books to live with, which ones would you prefer?

That was the question put to the recent Library Association Conference here by Dr. A. D. Dindsay, and which has brought forth some amazing answers from literary geniuses in London.

It was revealed by these answers that the Bible and Shakespeare would, in most cases, be included, and that "Alice in Wonderland" was voted the funniest book in the world.

Interviews with leading authors here evinced the following replies:

Miss Radcliffe Hall, authoress of the book "Wells of Loneliness," which was recently banned in England, exclaimed "What an awful predicament if one really had to make the choice. I should want Plato's "Republic," the Bible, "Alice in Wonderland," certainly, and there must be a poet so we will have Browning."

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, spiritualist and creator of Sherlock Holmes, agreed to the Bible and Shakespeare, "because you can dig into them again and again." He then chose Gibbon's "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," but confessed that the fourth choice baffled him.

Doyle Enjoys Poe

Asked if he woul dname the four best detective stories, Sir Arthur said tha the hardly ever read books of that kind, but he hed enjoyed the stories of Edgar Allan Poe.

Another writer who admitted that she could not decide on the fourth book in such a situation was Una, Lady Troubridge, whose first three were the Bible, Shakespeare, and Rudyard Kipling's poetry.

According to the chief librarian at Mudie's London best-known private library, the most popular authoris at the present time are: John Galsworthy, Arnold Bennett, H. G. Wells, Rose Macaulay, Sheila Kaye-Smith, W. J. Locke and Bernard Shaw.

The secretary of the Authors' club said the most popular book in their library at the present time was the Oxford Dictionary. Three other works in great demand were the French Encyclopaedia, the Dictionary of National Biography, and the Dictionary of Ethics and Religion.

HELD TO ANSWER ON CHECK CHARGE

Archie Jackson, Compton man, charged with attempting to issue a fictitious check, was held to answer to the superior court at the conclusion of his preliminary examination in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning.

Bail was fixed at $1000, which he did not make.

Jackson was arrested at Compton by deputy sheriffs on a complaint made by A. L. Cavenaugh, Santa Ana, that Jackson attempted to defraud him of $60 with a check.

Special Venire Will Be Called In Bigamy Case

A special venire of 36 prospective jurors will be called for the trial of Clarence P. Rand, charged with bigamy, when the hearing gets under way at 9:30 a. m., next Tuesday. Rand appeared in Superior Judge H. G. Ames' court today for trial.

F. H. Lyon, Fullerton attorney, who was appointed to represent Rand, was uanble to appear in court, being confined to his home with influenza. District District Attorney Sam L. Collins called the court's attention to this fact. Clifford Allen, who is associated with Lyon, informed the court that he would appear in the case if Lyon is unable to handle it. The matter was continued to Tuesday.

Judge Ames ordered the calling of a special venire because of the fact that two other jury trials are scheduled for the same day.

BIG NEBRASKA SQUAD INVADES ARMY GRIDIRON

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The second mid-western threat to the peace of minds of what started out to be an unbeaten football eleven showed up on the plains of West Point today, when Nebraska's powerful football squad, 33 strong, arrived for a workout preliminary to tomorrow's intersectional game with "Biff" Jones' Cadets.

Having received one rude setback at the hands of Notre Dame, the Cadets were in no mood to hold lightly these Cornhuskers who have swept aside all opposition this season aside from a scoreless tie with Pittsburgh last week.

Despite the known power of the Invaders, however, the Army eleven is ready to take revenge on the Mid-west for its defeat by the Irish a fortnight ago. That defeat spoiled what promised to be a great season for the Cadets, who are engaged upon the hardest football schedule ever undertaken by a service team.

The Cornhuskers, with 10 200-pounders on their squad, have a bone crushing, pile driving backfield star known as Blue Howell with whom they hope to crash through the west point line tomorrow. That line has shown great resistance at times this season, and should turn back the threat if it is not riddled by injuries as was the case in the game with Notre Dame.

But the Army has more to stop than one plunging back of the old school, for Nebraska knows how to turn elusively to the air when the occasion warrants a passing attack, with Claire Sloan tossing the ball.

DAD AND SONS IN SCHOOL TOGETHER

ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 23.—(UP)—John Glunt, a railroad brakeman, has allowed his occupation to interfere with his desire for learning, and he expects to be graduated next year from Altoon high school, later matriculating at Juniata college.

Glunt is married. Two sons are attenting high school with their father; two more are in grade school, and the two youngest children have not yet begun their education.

Glunt works from 3 p. m. to 11 p. m., attending senior high school classes before he goes to work. He will complete a four-year course in two years by intensive study.

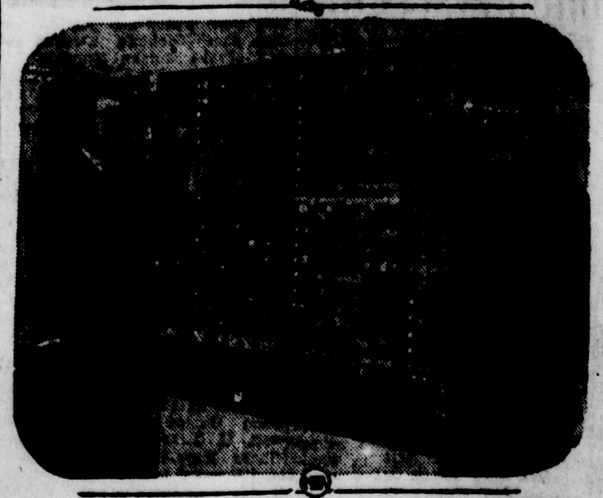
BOARD TELLS THE STORY

This board tells the destiny of the broadcasters of the United States. Before it are two of the engineers who worked out the new allocations on it. They are—left, Capt. Guy Hill, U. S. army radio technician, and Dr. J. H. Dellinger, the federal radio commission's chief engineer.



WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—On a board in an office of the federal radio commission the new allocations of our 620 radio stations were worked out by the government's best radio brains in co-operation with members of the commission.

The board was kept locked up during the long labor of reallocation and no outsider was allowed to see it before it was recently moved into a more public spot for sake of convenience.

Marked off on the board horizontally are each of the frequencies in the broadcast band, from 500 to 1500 kilocycles. Vertical columns are marked off for the five zones which, under the law, must be accorded equal treatment in allocation.

Two Pegs For Zone

There are two pegs for each zone in each column, to take care of stations sharing time, and each station has its little white tag on which is inscribed its call letter, location and power.

Under the white tags representing stations on cleared channels are red squares for quick identification. Yellow squares represent Canadian-shared frequencies and green for limited time stations.

During the reallocation work the tags were shuffled back and forth. At the beginning, of course, there was plenty of congestion on the board, but it was the one method used and was supplemented only by a map showing the distances between stations.

The main difficulty was found in the varying areas of the zones and their peculiar shapes. Pennsylvania, for instance, is almost surrounded on the radio zone map by other zones.

Maximum Results

Actual allocation was made by the commission after the experts had told it just how to get the maximum results under the law with the wavelengths available.

When the blackboard was finally presented to the commission it represented the best thought of the biggest brains in radio. The experts who worked it out were Dr. J. H. Dellinger, the commission's chief engineer, Capt. Guy Hill, U. S. Army radio technician, John V. L. Hogan, an outstanding radio engineer, and Edgar A. Felix, radio broadcasting authority.

After consultation with these men the commission consented to reduce the cleared channels they had planned from 50 to 40 and with the framework before it proceeded to decide which stations were entitled to the various positions.

Fashion Hints

ALMOND GREEN

An ensemble of brown tweed, with a dash of almond green in it, has its soft blouse of almond green satin crepe and its coat lined with the green, satin side out.

NEW CORSETS

The molded silhouette brings in many new corsets. One little confection in fine brocaded satin and rubber, in lavender, has inserts of real cream lace.

DOUBLE PANEL

A crimson velvet frock has two overlapping front panels falling from the belt, each slanting to a point to give a longer left-sided effect.

RED TWEED

A red tweed suit, with tuck-in blouse of egg-shell colored crepe, has all-around box pleats that alternate the length they are stitched down, giving a novel, step-up and step-down skirt yoke.

MANY PURSES

Purses are growing individual. Each costume calls for its own. Therefore the vogue of having one made of a suit's fabric is new. A navy blue kasha one is bound with matching blue leather, leather lined and has a stunning gold monogram on it.

"GOB" PAJAMAS

A new set of winter lounging pajamas has a smart little white tuck-in crepe satin blouse, with elbow sleeves, and blue flannel trousers cut just like sailor's flaring pants.

ORANGE VOGUE

Orange promises to be the favorite sports color for Southern wear this year. A pale blue kasha tweed and silk ensemble has wide orange bandings.

TASTY SUPPER

Soak calves' brains in cold water two hours, take off membrane and soak another hour in salt water. Then dip them in flour, eggs and cracker crumbs and saute all over in hot butter. Serve with grilled tomatoes and hot rolls for a delicious meal.

TASTY SALAD

Stuff celery with raisins and roquefort cheese mixed with cream, cut into one-inch pieces and serve on Romaine, with French dressing sprinkled with paprika.

VINEGAR BATH

A hot bath, to which two cups of vinegar has been added, will remove stiffness after strenuous exercise.

STOPPER HINT

When putting a stopper into a bottle, always give it a half turn round after it is in. This prevents stocking.

NEST SALADS

Separate head lettuce carefully and then make nests of the washed pieces. Into these put a salad mixture of tuna fish, chopped green peppers, pecan nut meats and chopped apples, covered with mayonnaise. Top with a deviled half egg.

CHAMOIS GLOVES

Olive oil, added to the water in which you wash chamois gloves, keeps them from getting stiff and hard. Use only a teaspoonful.

BRIGHT RUGS

To keep the colors in your rugs bright, sweep occasionally with a broom dipped in turpentine water. This prevents moths, also.

SMOKY WALLS

If repainting smoky walls a light shade a hurried coat of [illegible] water before the paint often [illegible] season decay. Dissolve two [illegible] worth of lime in a pail of [illegible] an deeply quickly with a [illegible] brush. Let dry thoroughly [illegible] painting.

Driver of Death Car Takes Stand In Own Defense

Speaking through an interpreter, Masao Kobayashi, Los Angeles Japanese testified from the witness stand in Superior Judge James L. Allen's court today in his own defense against a charge of manslaughter.

His trial began yesterday, with Chief Deputy District Attorney L. W. Blodget handling the prosecution.

Kobayashi's vegetable truck is alleged to have hit a car in which Frankie McGuire, 1, of Huntington Beach, was riding, several weeks ago, causing the child's death. The boy was the son of Frank McGuire, Huntington Beach school bus driver.

Court Notes

Guadalupe Hernandez, charged with driving while drunk, pleaded guilty to the charge today in superior court and requested probation through his appointed attorney, Carl Heim. Hearing on the probation application will be held at 9:30 a.m., next Friday. The information filed against Hernandez by Deputy District Attorney Sam H. Collins stated that he was driving while intoxicated on Irvine boulevard, November 11.

Fred W. Long today brought suit against W. F. Cluverius for $200.00, basing his complaint on an automobile accident in Carbon canyon in July, 1927, in which Cluverius is alleged to have been responsible for the wrecking of a car belonging to Rudolf Y. Tuma. The alleged claim against Cluverius has been assigned to Long, the complaint said.

A probation hearing for Charles R. Lester, who pleaded guilty to a bad check charge in superior court today, will be held at 9:30 a.m., next Friday. Lester applied for probation immediately after pleading guilty.

Accusing her husband of associating with another married woman, Arley Elaine Coulter today brought suit for divorce against Estle V. Coulter. They were married in Santa Ana in 1924 and separated last May, according to the complaint.

TO CUT OCEAN TIME

GOTHENBURG, Nov. 23.—(UP)—The flagship of the Swedish merchant marine, the new motor liner "Kungsholm" of the Swedish American line, will be a faster ship than any other Scandinavian vessel. Based on her performance during her trial trip, she will be able to make the trans-Atlantic crossing in eight days instead of nine.

The boat will leave Gothenburg for New York on her maiden trip on November 24. She measures 19,000 gross tons and has a displacement of 26,700 tons.

SNAPPY JUSTICE

HASTINGS, Neb., Nov. 23.—(UP)—This is merely an example of the speed with which justice functions in Hastings.

Harry Steats of this city, was arrested late one afternoon recently and next morning was sentenced in district court to four years in the penitentiary and fined $500.

He was charged with forging a check for $24.50.

PACIFIC COAST BUILDING-LOAN HAS S. A. OFFICE

The Pacific Coast Building-Loan association, of Los Angeles, which has established a record for building and loan growth in the United States, is to be officially represented in Santa Ana and vicinity by F. R. Cline and A. E. Prescott, 107 West Third street, according to an announcement made today. The association was three and one-half years old on November 20 and on $64,284.92.

A. A. Anderson, secretary, pointed out that the increasing volume of investment and home financing business which the association enjoys in this community necessitated the appointment of additional representation here.

Discussing the record growth of the association, Anderson called attention to the fact that the Pacific coast had remained true to the old-time fundamental plan of building and loan association.

According to Anderson, the total assets of the 12,000 building-loan associations in the United States now are more than 7,000,000,000 and they have almost 12,000,000 individual members. The increase of assets during 1927 was more than $900,000,000 he urged.

"California is one of the two states which showed the greatest percentage of growth in building-loan activity during the last year. According to the latest figures available the total assets of the associations in the state are more than $300,000,000."

HIGH SCHOOL AND JAYSEE NOTES

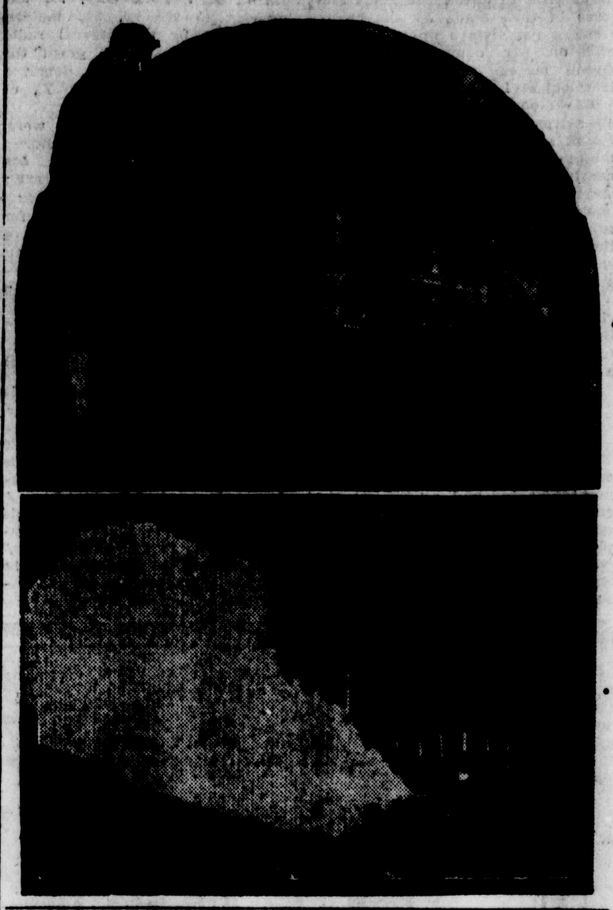
Santa Ana's Jaysee debating team will enter its first league debate December 7 on the question, "Resolved: That Trial by Jury Should Be Abolished in All Cases Except Those Involving Capital Cases." The negative team will meet Pasadena in Pasadena and the affirmative will debate Compton here.

Induction services will be held at the next meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in the city "Y" building, November 26. The affair will be staged as a dinner meeting, with representatives from Compton junior college as guests. Arrangements are being made to have Judge Kenneth Morrison act as speaker of the evening. Other special numbers are being planned.

Charles Young, prominent member of the Santa Ana junior college student body, yesterday was appointed vice president of the student body by the executive board, to replace George Butler who resigned the office last week. Butler resigned his office because of various outside activities.

'EXCUSE MY SMOKE!'

An excellent means of propulsion is this if you want to get somewhere in a hurry but the trail of smoke and flame that it leaves precludes the chance to using the rocket attachment on your town car or the kiddies' tricycle. Capt. George White is shown at the top with his motorcycle, powered only by the 20 rockets you see mounted on the side car. These, when lighted, produce the effect shown below, when the nervy rider tried out the device on the New York velodrome.



Recipe for fried ham

A famous cook gives these simple directions

It is sometimes so simple to improve the flavor of foods. For example, a certain household is noted for its delicious fried ham which is a specialty for Sunday morning breakfast and other "occasions." The cook was asked for the recipe, and here it is:

Take a slice of smoked ham one-half inch or more thick. Sear each side to a golden brown, then reduce the flame and sprinkle two teaspoons of granulated sugar on the exposed side, keeping the flame low so that the sugar does not burn. Then turn the ham and sprinkle two teaspoons of sugar on the other side, keeping the flame low until the sugar is thoroughly dissolved and absorbed into the ham. When it is finished, you will have a delicious ham flavor such as you never found before.

The uses of sugar in bringing out and improving the flavors of foods are practically unlimited. Sweeten cereals and note how much more children enjoy them. Add sugar to grapefruit or any other health-giving fruit that may be harsh to the taste. Sugar does not injure the beneficial acids and vitamins in any way.

A sweet dessert adds a feeling of satisfaction to the meal. Baked fruits, or fruit or berry pies, are especially delicious.

Eat nourishing foods and enjoy them. A famous food authority recommends one raw and one cooked fruit and vegetable a day, sweetened to taste. Sugar is Nature's perfect flavor. The Sugar Institute.

FULLERTON SCHOOLS CLOSED FOR WEEK

FULLERTON, Nov. 23.—With more than 300 school children out of local grammar schools, R. E. Green, superintendent of public schools, has closed all the grammar schools for a week or longer, he announced today. Many of those absent have influenza, it is said.

The Fullerton union high school and junior college will not be closed, it was said today by Louis E. Plummer, principal. Although there are many cases of the "flu," unless there is a greater absentee list, school will be continued as usual, he said.

Mr. Green said that not all of the students absent were ill, many parents preferring to keep their children home because of fear of the disease.

Police News

Santa Ana police, busy for the last 10 days on burglary calls and calls reporting prowlers, were given a night of rest last night, with not a call coming to the station, it was reported. No arrests were made during the lull.

Charged with overtime parking, Mrs. H. J. Toole, C. V. Newman, Roy Fowler, G. L. Lowry, H. M. Secrest, F. B. Field and Clifford L. Chaffee paid fines in police court yesterday.

Ramon Cruz and P. Acriolla, arrested here Wednesday night on drunk charges, were fined $10 each in Judge J. F. Talbott's police court yesterday.

LESS STATIC WANTED

ANTIGO, Wis., Nov. 23.—(UP)—Radio fans in this city have organized a club to curtail lical interference during the evening. X-ray machines, vacuum sweepsters and other electrical devices have provoked the action. The city council will be asked to pass a restraining order prohibiting use of such machines after sunset.

HOLD FUNERAL OF ORANGE RESIDENT

ORANGE, Nov. 23.—Funeral services were held this afternoon for Dr. Demetrius C. Rumph, 73, at the Gillogly funeral home at 2 o'clock, the Rev. W. B. Cole of the First Methodist church conducting the service. Dr. Rumph died at his home at 320 North Lemon street, Tuesday, after a brief illness. He had been a practicing physician for the past 40 years, 29 years of which he had spent in Texas and the past 11 years in Orange.

Dr. Rumph is survived by his widow, Mrs. Tillie Rumph, and seven children, Tillie, Florence and Minnie Rumph, of this city; Mrs. Hattie Hemstalk, of Berkeley, M. R. Rumph, of Porterville; Dr. Paul E. Rumph, of the University hospital at San Francisco; Solon Rumph, of Orange; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. M. R. Rumph, of Berkeley, and four brothers, Dr. Eugene Rumph, Dr. John Rumph, Malley Rumph and Raymond Rumph, all of Texas.

Services at the grave were conducted by Orange Grove lodge No. 293, F. and M.

FJORD CAR FATAL

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 23.—(UP)—The first fatal motor car accident ever recorded in the Faroe Islands occurred when a car enroute from Goethe to one of the fjords overturned when the steering gear broke. The chauffeur was killed. Although the car was used to see the fjords, the car itself was one.

SEEK TO CURB FOG PERIL FOR PLANE PILOTS

CLEVELAND, Nov. 22.—Fog will lose its terrors for the air pilot if the hope of members of the International Illumination congress is fulfilled, according to Dr. M. Luckiesh, Cleveland illuminating specialist.

The congress, he said, has promised every assistance for the development of aviation through scientific and adequate lighting of landing fields, air route markers, beacons and for planes themselves. Plane lights, it was said, would make practicable safe landings on unlighted fields.

According to Dr. Luckiesh, the congress also will work toward safer highways. Better lighting research activities looking toward improved working conditions for factories and schools as well as better lighting in the homes, also will be conducted.

"Many researches are still necessary and a great amount of work and ingenuity will be involved in interpretation of scientific data, he said. "We need knowledge, but that knowledge is useless if left uninterpreted and unused."

MIAMI TO STAGE HUGE AIR DERBY

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 22.—(UP)—An air-derby will be held here January 7 and 8 to dedicate Miami's municipal air-port, it was announced by the city commission when they appropriated $12,500 for race prizes and other expenses.

It is planned to have an air race from New York to Miami, and possibly one from Detroit to Miami, with an All-Florida race planned to Miami from Florida cities. Elaborate prizes will be awarded the winners.

Such notables of the air as Lindbergh, Chamberlin, Ruth Elder and Ruth Nichols and other celebrated fliers will be invited to be guests during the ceremonies. Squadrons of army and navy planes and marine corp airplanes are expected to come here and take part in the air carnival.

Glossary Of Radio Terms

Harmonics: Multiples of the fundamental frequency which are often set up in a circuit; the introduction of these introduces elements into speech sounds which cause distortion. Part of the electrical energy is lost in setting up these harmonics. Harmonics which are present in the original speech sounds, however, must be preserved so that the quality is not altered.

Henry: The unit of inductance. One millionth of a henry, called the microhenry, is commonly used in radio calculations.

Heterodyne Reception: A method of radio reception for continuous waves, employing the principle of reaction between locally generated oscillations and incoming oscillations. (See Beat Frequency.)

Hot Wire Ammeter, Expansion Type: An ammeter dependent for its indications on the change in dimensions of an element heated by a current through it.

Hydrometer: An instrument for measuring the specific gravity of electrolytes in batteries.

Inductance: A property of conductors and circuits by virtue of which opposings emf's are induced in them or in other circuits, due to the magnetic fields set up by the current cutting across these circuits.

Impact Transmitter: A radio transmitting set in which the transfer of energy from the exciting to an oscillating circuit is effected during one pulse of the exciting circuit current.

Impedence: Ratio of voltage to current in an alternating-current circuit. Impedence is a factor determining the magnitude of current flow in a circuit. The greater the impedance for a given voltage the smaller the current.

Impulse Emf.: An emf., the maximum value of which is large compared with its average value, the average value being taken over a time equal to the time-constant of the circuit in which the emf. is impressed.

Inductance: A property of conductors and circuits by virtue of which opposings emf's are induced in them or in other circuits, due to the magnetic fields set up by the current cutting across these circuits.

Impulse Excitation: A method of producing free oscillations in a circuit in which the duration of the impressed voltage is short compared with the duration of the current produced.

GRANGERS CALL ON CALVIN

Before President Coolidge's address to the convention of the National Grange, in which he advocated federal support of co-operative marketing, he was visited at the White House by members of the farmers' organization. Here is part of the group on the south lawn. Next to the president is L. J. Tabor, master of the Grange; and Mrs. Tabor at Mr. Coolidge's left.

CLAIM MOON NOT ALWAYS ON TIME

LONDON, Nov. 22.—(UP)—Astronomers need the help of horologists to check the gains and loses in time made by the moon. Luna is not always up to the second on her course, Cir Frank Dyson stated before the British Horological institute.

The moon was 30 second slow on astronomical time in 1620, Sir Frank said, but made up the half minute by 1720. By 1775 it was nearly 30 seconds ahead, and then started to lose again, and was back to the time of the rotating earth by 1865. From 1876 to 1897 the moon lost 15 seconds, but regained 11 seconds between 1897 and 1918.

"We should like half a dozen clocks in the best observatories," Sir Frank said, "which could be trusted to keep time to one second a year."

THE LATE MR. GOODBAN

LONDON, Nov. 22. — Percy Thomas Goodban even made a tardy appearance at his own funeral. Having had, all his life, the reputation of being late for appointments, Goodban decided to play a joke on his friends and accordingly instructed in his will that he be made ten minutes late at his funeral.

3 STATIONS LOSE NEW WAVE PLEAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The applications of WBNY and WOV, both of New York City, for assignment to 900 kc, 333 meters, was denied by the federal radio commission, because to grant the application would have deprived Buffalo and Syracuse, N. Y., of deserved facilities.

Other applications denied were, WHAC-WBIS, the Shepard Stores, Boston, Mass., for 890 kc, 508 meters, now assigned to WBBI; WIBS, New Jersey Broadcasting corporation, Elizabeth, N. J., for increase in power and hours of broadcasting; construction permit for Pickwick Broadcasting corporation, to erect stations in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and in Phoenix, Ariz.

ATHLETE REJUVENATED

VIENNA, Nov. 22.—Josef Uridil, popular Austrian football star, has been operated on to restore his prowess on the field. It is said that certain "power" glands were opened to increase the muscular power of the athlete. A daily check of muscle growth following the operation was announced as "very satisfactory," although actual playing will be required in order to prove the experiment a success.

FREE LOVE COSTLY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Her husband not only believed, but practiced "free love" and advised her to do the same, Mrs. Louise Mayer of this city charged before she obtained a divorce here recently. Mayer made counter-charges to the effect that his wife nagged, and was in love with another man, but these were refuted by cross-examination.

BETTER DEAL DEMANDED FOR STILL PICTURES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Edgar L. Felix, a radio engineer of New York, has written to Commissioner Orestes H. Caldwell urging that the "very radical differences" between still picture and television radio transmission should be taken into consideration by the federal radio commision in its proposed regulation of visual transmission in the broadcast band.

The two modes of visual transmission, said Felix, "are considered as one problem by the commission, but they differ so radically in technical aspects and prospective fields of service that their respective statuses should be established separately."

Felix points out that still pictures can be transmitted successfully over a broadcast channel simultaneously with the tonal program without any interference, while acceptable television images cannot be broadcast at all in the width of channel established for broadcasting. Therefore he urges band and channels for television transmission be established in the short wave region wher adequate frequency bands can be provided for it. He further pointed out that still pictures can be received with ordinary broadcast receivers with only a simple attachment, whereas television images required a more complex arrangement for successful reception.

BREA

BREA, Nov. 23.—Brea friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Penn, former residents of Brea, have been informed of the birth of a daughter, Orva Jean, in the Penn home in Nebraska. During their stay in Brea Mr. Penn was employed in the jewelry store of A. W. Pettitt and Son. They left here about a year ago.

Weighing nine pounds, the first son in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Conley made his appearance on the morning of November 21. Two little sisters join the parents in rejoicing over his coming. The Conley home is at Stewart Station and Mr. Conley is employed in the machine shops of the Union Oil company.

Members of the Brea Woman's club who on Wednesday attended the annual southern district convention of federated clubs at Del Mar were the president, Mrs. Clara Close, and Mesdames Emma Throop, Beatrice Livingston and Eva Jarvis.

Girl Reserves and all other high school girls who may care to attend have been invited to be present in the social hall of the Congregational church this evening when the Brea Y. W. C. A. council will be entertained.

Miss Ethel Church, secretary of the Northern Orange county district, will be present and will explain the work of the Girl Reserves to those who have not already allied with the movement. Mrs. Grace Reed, teacher in the local high school, is leader of the Brea Reserves.

TOO EXPENSIVE

NEWBURG, Ind., Nov. 23.—James Lee is free to buy his kisses when and where he pleases. He obtained a divorce recently when he told Probate Judge Isadore Fine that his wife collected five dollars for every kiss she gave him. "That wasn't the worst of it though," Lee told the court, "one night she went out riding with two drunken men and that's when I decided I had enough of married life."

G. AND L. LEASE

G. AND L. LEASE, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Mae DeWitt, of Los Angeles is spending a few days here with her mother, Mrs. Ella Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Armstrong, of Gilmore, were over night guests of Mrs. Anna Varner Wednesday night.

Charles Brawley, who has been ill for some time, is able to be out again.

Mrs. George Wade spent Thursday with her son, Joe Wade, and family on the Hole lease.

Jack Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Berry, is ill.

Mrs. Bernie Messer is still ill.

Mrs. Isaac Mayfield has returned home after spending a few days in Whittier with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Varner and two small sons, Jack and Dale, spent Tuesday evening in Compton.

Rex. Benner, of Los Angeles, is visiting friends here for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards are entertaining Mr. Richards' brother and family from Ireland.

Fans! Let's Have Your Letters Of Complaint Today

"Fast and furious" comes the letters explaining the interference ruining radio reception in the various parts of the city. And today we issue our last invitation to fans of the city who think their radios are being made the victims of electrical disturbance, to get their letters to the radio editor of The Register before 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon if they wish the Radio Trades association engineer to investigate conditions in their neighborhoods.

Don't forget! The engineer will be here Monday and all letters of complaint must be in before 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

DIDN'T WANT LEARNIN'

FINDLAY, O., Nov. 23.—Congressman Brooks Fletcher was to address an educational meeting at Benton Ridge. However, it appears local sentiment was not entirely in favor of the speech, because when the main speaker arrived he was told that all the electric light wires into the auditorium had been cut. As a result the meeting was called off and Congressman Fletcher offered $100 reward for the arrest of the vandals.

ISLAND BUREAU HAS FAVORABLE FISCAL REPORT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Philippine and Porto Rican affairs in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1928, were in good condition and gave cause for optimism of the future, General Frank McIntyre, Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, indicated his annual report to Secretary of War Davis which was made public today.

McIntyre's report was nwritte before a West Indian hurricane smashed through Porto Rico creating an extremely dangerous economic situation there. It has been said that many years will be required for Porto Rico to recover from the storm damage.

"This has been an excellent year for the Philippine people," McIntyre said.

"The finances are in excellent condition, public order is good, the conditions of health and sanitation have steadily improved and the statistics of production and trade bear evidence of continued progress.

"The general interest of the people in educational progress is still maintained. After making many inspection trips to all parts of the islands, Vice Governor Eugene A. Gilmore, then Actinfi Governor General, was impressed by the cordial feelings toward the American people and Government and reported:

"'It would be difficult to find a more contented body of people or one with fewer causes for grievances.'"

Henry L. Stimson became Governor General March 1, 1928. McIntyre said the Philippine Legislature had responded to Stimson's effort "to secure that necessary cooperation without which wise and well-considered legislation cannot be obtained."

Economically, McIntyre reported the Philippines in good shape. The 1927 revenue exceeded expenditures of the Government by more than $1,500,000 and the books showed a surplus of about $3,500,000. Trade increased by $15,000,000, or about 6 per cent, over the year before and the areas planted to the principal crops were larger.

McIntyre interpreted sharp increases in importation of iron, steel, automobiles, meat and silk as indicating increasing prosperity of the islanders. Industries were "progressing slowly and steadily, though handicapped by a lack of capital."

Porto Rico economics likewise showed progress, including reduction of the floating debt from $3,200,000 to $2,000,000. Public buildings were being erected and the road system extended. The outstanding agricultural development was the increased sugar production per acre. This was accomplished by the irrigation and fertilization.

Certain bills introduced into the last session of the Congress, McIntyre said, were based upon petitions and recommendations which have been made for modification of the organic law of the country.

"The proponents of these measures," McIntyre said, "naturally have been disappointed when their requests were not complied with, and there has followed quite a campaign in Porto Rico, in the United States and in Latin America critical of the action of the United States toward Porto Rico."

McIntyre referred to President Coolidge's letter of Feb. 28 to Governor Horace Towner in which he reviewed at length "the benefits received by Porto Rico through association with the United States."

OFFICERS OF HOOVER'S SHIP

Officers of the super-dreadnaught Maryland, on which President-elect Herbert Hoover and party are sailing to South American ports, are shown above. They are: 1—Capt. Victor A. Kimberley, in command of the battleship; 2—Lt. Com. A. W. Brown, second in command; 3—Lt. Com. E. F. Huske, ship's chaplain; 4—Ensign W. R. Caruthers, chief radio operator.

VISCOUNT AT CAMBRIDGE TO BE JUST "MR."

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Viscount Ennismore, undergraduate of Magdalene college, Cambridge university, and son and heir of the Earl of Listowel, in teh future, at his own request, will be known as plain W. F. Hare.

His reason for dropping his title and assuming the "Mr." of his family name is, he says, a gesture of revolt against the servility which he has found mention of a title evokes.

"For years I have been using a courtesy title," he said, "I feel I have been carrying about with me a lie. It placed me at an unfair advantage, because I have been treated as a man of distinction.

"There is servility given to a man of title to which I object. If one is nothing but a plain man one's conscience is clear. Anybody who likes to address me as Lord Ennismore is at liberty to do so, but I prefer to be addressed as 'Mr. Hare.'"

"Mr. Hare" said he wast not troubling about what he would do if or when the time came for him to use the title of Earl of Listowel.

SPEARMEN REVIEW ON CHAIN TONIGHT

"Dear Old Girl of Mine," a song hit of a quarter century ago, will be sung by the Spearmen's tenor soloist as one of the features of the Wrigley Review, broadcast from New York through NBC system stations from 6 to 7 o'clock tonight, Pacific Standard time.

The soprano will join the tenor in a duet, "Because You're You," from Victor Herbert's operetta, "The Red Mill," and will herself sing as a solo "In The Heart of the Hills," by Lee.

Valentine's "At Twilight" will be sung by the contralto and Phillips' "A Son of the Desert Am It" by the basso.

The Shenanigan duo, ever at hand with comic numbers, will sing "I'm Crazy Over You" and "The Party's a Fissle," while the novelty vocal trio obliges with "The Frog Song" and "Sing On, Brother, Sing," by Robinson.

"Bolero" by Moszkowski, Strauss' "Egyptian March," "Marche Militaire" by Schubert and Godowsky's "Terpsichorean Vindobona" will be the orchestral features.

PREFERS JAIL TO WEARING OLD HAT

OAKLAND, Calif., Nov. 23.—(UP)—Jail is one thing and a new hat is another so when pretty Patience Hunt of Oakland had her choice she picked the hat.

Miss Hunt was fined $15 when she appeared before Police Judge J. V. Gaffey of Burlingame on a speeding charge. He gave her the alternative of spending five days in jail.

The pretty speeder puckered her brow just a second before she came to her decision.

"Fifteen dollars will buy a new hat," she told the judge. "I deposit the money so I can go home and straighten up my affairs and then I'll come back to go to jail."

She kept her word to the letter and went to jail.

"FLYING SENSE"

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A machine invented recently helps air officials to determine whether an aspiring aviator is qualified for his job. He is placed in the pilot's seat and the commands, "Left bank! Spin! Nose dive! etc., are given. The results are recorded on a chart, which determines whether the applicant has "flying sense."

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion

Create Sourness, Gas and Pain, How to Treat

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist some Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful of powder or four tablets in water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

AMERICANS PUT HOME LAND ON PAN IN PARIS

By RALPH HEINZEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Nov. 23.—(U. P.)—It might interest America to know that some of her voluntary expatriates who make up the racial literary element of the famous Latin Quarter consider the United States too "early Victorian."

"Transition," a publication boasting that it is a century ahead of contemporary literature, canvassed these American expatriates and asked why they prefer to live outside of America.

"The United States is just now the oldest country in the world. There always is an oldest country and she is it; it is she who is the mother of Twentieth Century civilization," replied Miss Gertrude Stein, famous radical writer and author of "Tender Buttons," the work which 15 years ago started the literary onslaught against the mechanized world.

"America is now Victorian, very early Victorian. She is a rich and well nourished home but not a place to work."

The American composer, George Antheil, creator of mechanical opera and other musical novelties, says that "musically, it is impossible to live in America. My Polish origin makes me love the ground I was born upon, New Jersey."

Hilaire Hiler, who paints pink negroes and is an advanced thinker among artists, prefers to live outside America because "in America there are no facilities for the enjoyment of leisure or apparatuses for reflection."

A. Lincoln Gillespie, jr., answered the query in a mass of words.

"Because in Europe I find Meaning Scurry in their Organise-Self-Divert—hours loll here all simmer-rife-Expect-lush-stat, Get is less-necessary. Liquor-Gamme abroad somewhat breathier, the Spiritual future of America is not to evolve till a present diabetes is admit removed, t'wit: America's total lack of parent-sagacity to exprimply an especially-wide-correcting-them good will toward and to cull an early admiration from the children."

Harry Crosby answered in poetry:

"away from Weakness toward Strength away from Civilized Sordidness toward Barbaric Splendor away from malted milk toward Straight Gin away from Shame toward Nakedness away from Canaries
toward Lions"

But the position of many expatriates become perilous because M. Chiappe, prefect of Paris police, has given orders for the cleaning up of the Latin Quarter and while bona-fide art students and writers are to be allowed to work in peace, the police will see that studios which charge entrance fees, like music halls, to see nude models posing before pseudo-artists are licensed like theaters or closed.

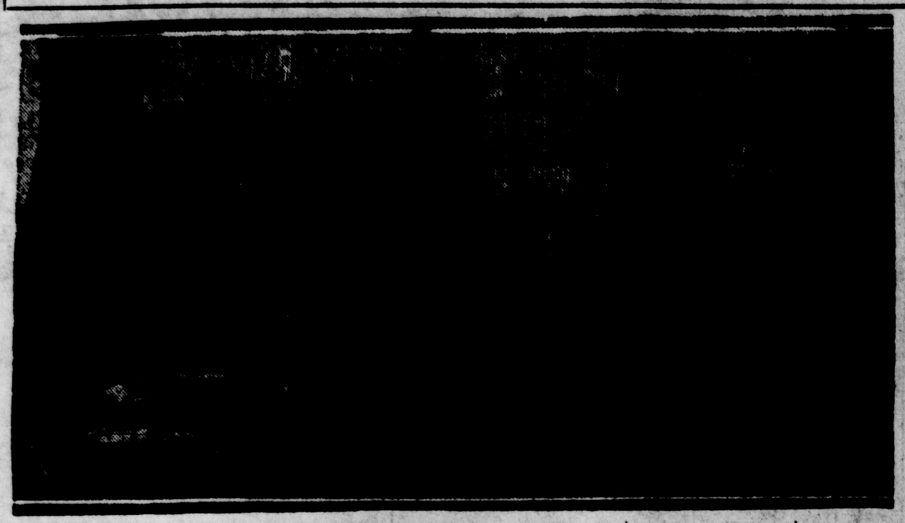
WAR DEVASTATION—16 YEARS AFTER ARMISTICE

Looks like the ruins of a French village in the war zone—but it's a movie set at Burbank, Calif., and the explosion of an arsenal wrecked the whole set and killed one man. The set was to be used to portray a French village in a war movie, but it was ruined before the film "war" started.



AMNESIA WORRIES BRITISH POLICE

LONDON, Nov. 23.—(UP)—Police are puzzled by the increasing number of disappearances all over England.

Loss of memory is the usual cause. The victims wander hundreds of miles away from their homes. Their former interests are forgotten.

"There are many more victims of lost memory nowadays than there used to be," declared a prominent London doctor, commenting on the problem.

"There are two classes of victims. In one class are the victims of war injuries to the brain. For the second type we must blame the increasing complexity of modern life. Women, especially, are susceptible to this. They try to compete with men in industries in which man has been predominant. In my opinion they are not fitted to do a man's work satisfactorily except in a comparatively few instances."

WANT ADS IN PHILIPPINES ARE AMUSING

MANILA, Nov. 23. — Amusing qualifications for employment often are cited by the many Filipinos advertising for positions through the bureau of labor.

There is, for example, the 29-year-old gentleman "with five years experience as municipal chief of police and four years as clerk and municipal secretary," who "wants to be employed as watchman."

A Filipino musician who declares himself to be "healthy and robust" declares that he "plays contrabass at first sight with 10 years experience."

Also there is a bookkeeper "who finished the second year in the College of Liberal Arts with three years experience as such," whatever that may mean.

One young man "with three years experience as clerk, salesman and typist, desires to work in any of the three positions he has held."

Virtually all the applicants would class as accomplished linguists in any other place than the Philippines. Those asking only $30 a month salary usually speak at least three languages. One "lady typist" who desires only a "reasonable salary" cites among her qualifications the fact that she speaks English, Ilocano, Tagalog, Visayan and a little Spanish.

JOAN OF ARC ON STAMP IN FRANCE

PARIS, Nov. 23—(UP)—The first stamp bearing the likeness of a woman in France will be issued next year upon the anniversary of the Battle of Orleans. Competition has been opened for the artists of France for the best portraits of Joan of Arc.

According to the best authorities nothing is known of how Joan looked save that she was "robust and well proportioned." Joan herself testified to this effect when tried by the English.

According to Henri Wallon, Joan's biographer and conceded the greatest living authority upon the French heroine, it is apparent that the huge quantity of statues and paintings of Joan that exist are all products of the artistic imagination. The stamp competition will be for a portrait of the Maid in full armour.

TOOK ADVICE OF HER MOTHER

Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wetmore, Colo.—"When I was married 14 years ago I was in bad health for a couple of years and when I tried to do anything I would get tired and worn-out. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound off and on all these years and have recommended it to hundreds of women. I have given birth to six children and I always take the Vegetable Compound a few weeks before child birth. It has done me worlds of good. My mother has taken it several times and she recommended it to me."—Mrs. John [illegible], Wetmore, Colorado.

SEES EARTH AS OVERPOPULATED IN 200 YEARS

LONDON, Nov. 23.—(UP)—Visions of a time when there will be so many people that the earth will not be able to feed or support them are conjured up by Sir George Handley Knibbs, the Australian statistician.

"If the population of the world continues to increase at the present rate of 1 per cent a year it will within two centuries exceed the maximum which the earth can support or feed," he declares in his book, "The Shadow of the World's Future," recently published.

Sir George declares that the limits of human expansion are much nearer than popular opinion imagines.

The difficulty of food supplies, he says, will soon be of the gravest character. The exhaustion of sources of energy necessary for any notable increase of population or advance in the standards of living, or both combined, is perilously near.

To show "how ominous the world's future is," Sir George points out that, while from 1800 to 1900 the rate of increase of the world's population was roughly 0.864 per cent from 1900 to 1911 statistics for 26 countries gave a rate of increase over all of 1.159 per cent.

Shows prepable Population

Taking the present world population as 1,950,000,000 Sir George gives the following figures as showing the result of an increase of 0.864 per cent:—

Year	Millions	Year	Millions
1928	1,950	2169	15,600
2008	3,900	2250	31,200
2089	7,800	2330	62,400

The figures for the years 2169, 2250 and 2330 are, he declares, not possible populations for this earth.

Calculations indicate that the earth might be able to feed a population of from 7,020,000,000 to 9,000,000,000, or even 11,000,000,000 if there was the freest possible migration, appropriate co-ordination of all human effort and complete elimination of the jeopardy of war, Sir George adds.

Very soon the question must be faced "whether it is better that there should be larger numbers and more modest living, or fewer numbers and lavish living," he said.

In view of the imminence of a food shortage, Sir George thinks that some measure of the control of births in some way or other is inevitable.

BULL ELEPHANT THAT KILLED 7 FINALLY SLAIN

By HAROLD P. MILLS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SHANGHAI, Nov. 23.—One huge foot and one mighty tusk of "Devil-Devil," the rogue elephant which for months terrorized the natives of the Mirabu district of Burma, killing seven persons and destroying thousands of dollars worth of crops, now repose in the Shanghai office of the United Press—the gift of Joseph R. Grove, slayer of the great pachyderm.

Before Grove completed 16 years in the jungles of Burma, sailed for his home in San Francisco and stopped long enough in Shanghai to distribute a number of big game trophies to newspapermen.

In Burma Grove was superintendent of an oil field owned by an English concern.

"Devil-Devil," the rogue elephant, was killed after a three-day hunt in the jungles. The beast measured 9 feet 4 inches at the shoulders and is stated to have been the largest elephant ever killed in Burma.

After a three-day search in the bamboo jungles Grove came upon "Devil-Devil" unexpectedly. Both man and elephant were surprised.

The average Burma elephant, which is of the Asiatic Specie, will flee at the sight of a man. Not so with "Devil-Devil." Before Mr. Grove could get his gun to his shoulder, the great beast charged. With the enraged beast within six feet, Grove let go with his .404 Jeffries, an English-make magazine rifle dealing a blow of 4000 pounds.

The bullet failed to stop the elephant. Grove jumped and the beast thundered by, but turned to charge again. Another bullet from the Jeffries rifle killed him.

During his years in Burma, Grove has killed 16 elephants. To the United Press he said that the best and surest way to kill one of the beasts is to aim for an imaginary line between the ears.

In Burma it costs 50 rupees to shoot an elephant. On the other hand, a reward of 40 rupees is paid for killing a tiger, 20 rupees for slaying a leopard and 10 rupees for killing a bear.

On one occasion when charged by a wounded rogue elephant, Grove and a companion were compelled to roll down a hill, a distance of some 200 yards, to escape the infuriated beast.

PEASANT PREDICTS OWN DEATH DATE

KOPRIVNICA, Jugoslavia, Nov. 23.—(UP)—Herr Ujsek, a peasant here, predicted the exact day of his death.

Last Christmas Ujeck suddenly stood up at a famil yreunion banquet and declared that on October 4, 1928, he would die.

In preparation for the event the peasant put all of his affairs in order. Even his commin he ordered and caused to be delivered late in September.

None of his family or his friends took his prediction seriously. Even when he bade them a final farewell as they went into the harvest fields on the day of his death they laughed at him.

Returning from work in the evening, however, they found him lying quietly in his coffin—dead. Physicians declared that he had not committed suicide but had died a natural death from old age.

SAINTS BID FOR GRID CROWN TOMORROW

HOOKS AND SLIDES
By Henry L. Farrell

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Johnny Sheppard, a hockey player with the New York Americans, is a fur trapper during the off season. . . . And "Punch" Broadbent, another of the hard Americans, is a tennis player. . . . Larry Gaffney, the six-day bike rider, is a Brooklyn undertaker. . . . Villanova's backfield is known as the "Morgan raiders" . . . A compliment to Tom Morgan, the quarterback. . . . Paolino gave a dinner to the New York boxing writers. . . . And there wasn't a fight. . . . Because Jack Sharkey wasn't there . . . Paolino and Sharkey sat at the same table at the dinner to Tex Rickard by his 600 millionaires. . . . And Sharkey pulled Paolino's tie loose and dared him to go outside . . . Sharkey escaped because Paolino couldn't understand English. . . . And thought tie-pulling was a quaint bit of horse play.

DISSENSION IS MILD

The venerable Amos "Pop" Stagg was highly indignant when it was reported recently that there was dissension among the players on his University of Chicago squad.

"There hasn't been such a thing as dissension on the Chicago squad for 37 years," he said. "But there was some argument between the halves of the game with Wisconsin."

It seems that, late in the second period, Chicago reached the Wisconsin one-yard line with four downs in which to make a touchdown. Two line plunges failed and then the boys got into such an argument that two penalties were imposed for delaying the game and Chicago didn't score.

The argument was continued in the dressing room but not for long.

"I stopped it," Stagg said. "I told Weaver: 'you are the biggest man on the team. You punch the nose of the first man who interferes with Mendenhall. He is running the team."

That doesn't sound like dissension. More like a riot.

BEWARE OF BOSTON

Considering that money is no item to the Cubs, the deal that the Chicago people put over with Boston for Hornsby seems smarter the more it is considered.

The Cubs had several angles to consider when they were deciding the players to be sent to Boston with the bundle of money.

Bill McCarthy, manager of the club, insisted that he would not part with any players that would weaken the team. That was at the time that Boston was talking about Root, Webb and Heathcote.

But McCarthy and his superiors had another angle in mind. They had to protect themselves two ways. They didn't want any real valuable players to go to Boston and then on to New York as there are reasons to believe that there is a bond of more than friendship between the Braves and the Giants.

Bear-Card 'Big Game' Held Toss-Up

STANFORD IS STRONGER ON OFFENSE, CALIFORNIA HAS BETTER DEFENSIVE RECORD

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Far from the sly whisperings of the ticket scalpers and the more open-faced shoutings of the raucous undergraduates, the Stanford Cardinals and the California Golden Bears were sequestered today in remote retreats where they can go about the main business of tomorrow.

And that business, it seems, is everybody's business in these parts. Some 80,000 persons will be present at the Berkeley Memorial stadium when Messrs. Warner and Price essay a coup de grace, and practically all of them will either be graduates or potential graduates of the universities whose teams will put on the epic football battle of the Pacific Coast.

So great is the interest in this contest that the stadium could be filled if it had twice its present capacity. As it is, many alumni will be allowed the privilege, at a price of $2, of hanging on to the sides of a precipitous bluff which overlooks the stadium and from there get as large an eyeful as possible.

The well-known rumors are also being bruited about that a small army of disgruntled will attempt to crash the gates tomorrow, a rumor to which police are lending an attentive ear. Consequently more than 100 state officers have been added to the force and any incipient riot will be, so to speak, nipped in the bud.

The setting for the West's classic this year is almost perfect. It would have been perfect no less, if Stanford had been able to dispose of Southern California. Os it is, however, a California victory will mean that the Golden Bears have tied the Trojans for the championship honors.

Pop Warner

Stanford has lost but one conference game this season and that loss was charged to loose handling of the ball. As is sometimes the case, the Cardinals made most of the yardage and Southern California got the plum.

The only blot on the California record, if such it can be called, is its scoreless tie with the Trojans. In the rest of its conference games(it has never had its goal line crossed.

The teams are expected to shoot the works in an overhead game. In "Biff" Hoffman, the Cardinals have one of the best passers in the country. California has Benny Lom, who hurls them almost as far and perhaps a bit more accurately than Hoffman.

If there is any edge, Stanford has the call on the attack, because of the deceptive Warner plays. But this is equalized by the California defense.

VANDALS REACH L. A. FOR GAME WITH TROJANS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Bent on one wild spree in the Coliseum tomorrow by way of bringing a dismal season to a close, a squad of 22 beefy Vandals from Idaho thundered into Los Angeles today with heavy foot and grim spirit to try conclusions with Howard Jones' undefeated Trojan footballers in the final Pacific Coast conference game of the season.

"Cocky" Charley Erb, the boy who led a stormy life at California and a still stormier one as Idaho coach, according to reports, led his behemoths into town at an early hour. He bundled them off to a hotel and scheduled a brief workout this afternoon at the Coliseum as a final preparatory gesture.

Charley greeted the old home town with a smirk and a bright eye as he clambered off the Pullman. He's evidently quite pleased with the way things are shaping up for the contest tomorrow.

In the first place, every man on the squad is in perfect shape for the first time this season. "Big Bill" Kershisnik, the 218-pound fullback, who is the inspiration of the whole team, is champing at the bit with nary a trace of sore knee or charley horse, and that means a lot to the success of the Vandal squad.

Coach Howard Jones knows it, and that's why he will start every available regular tomorrow. A defeat would cots the Trojans the coast crown. . . Indications at a late hour were to the effect that Francis Tappaan would not be able to play end and that Bert Ritchey, San Diego Negro, would be in his place.

Nate Barrager took a decided turn for the better yesterday, however, and may be able to handle center for a while. Steponovich is also slated to start at Boren's running guard. The rest of the lineup will remain intact, with Marshall Duffield starting at quarterback and Don Williams in shape to play if necessary.

CHANCE TO REAP REVENGE

Two years ago a missed kick for the extra point after touchdown gave Ohio State a 7-6 victory over Illinois. "Frosty" Peters missed the point for Illinois. The Illini and Buckeyes meet in their annual game tmoorrow and Peters hopes to get a chance to make up for that misoue of two years ago. He will be at quarterback for Bob Zuppke and ready to drop-kick extra points and field goals in this game. A close-up and action shot of Peters are shown here.

NAMES, NUMBERS OF PLAYERS

Santa Ana and Alhambra both have two sets of jersies and may wear either or both tomorrow. Both schools want to wear white but Santa Ana, being the visiting team, is expected to have the preference. Alhambra claims its black sweaters are in poor condition and so the Alhambra black jersey numbers, as herewith given, may not all be correct. There is a possibility that Santa Ana will change to its old blue jersies at the half.

DOPESTERS FAVOR CHANCES OF ALHAMBRA; SANTA ANA SET FOR GREATEST EFFORT

TWO good and true football elevens—Santa Ana and Alhambra—take the rostrum tomorrow afternoon to decide the much mooted question: "Is there more than one wonder team in the Coast Preparatory league?" Alhambra has been called that kind of a team, and may be, but a Santa Ana squadron that has been going about the business of improvement without much ballyhoo is prepared to vigorously refute all arguments that the Moors should be presented with the championship.

The game will begin at 2:15 o'clock, 15 minutes earlier than the other interscholastic contests this season have been starting. Class C squads of the same schools will meet in a curtain-raiser, starting at 12:15 o'clock.

Some of the dopesters, especially those in Los Angeles, think highly of Alhambra's chances because of the impressive manner in which Coach George Hobbs' gladiators have trampled over all opposition, making at least four touchdowns in every game.

The Moors do rate to be the favorite but this has been a terrible year for favorites. Comparative scores don't mean very much when two fairly well matched ball clubs come to grips and Santa Ana, always a slow starter but a terrific finisher with its more involved system of play, should be given credit for more than just a fighting chance. The Saints may lose and they may win and if they win they are just as likely as not to run up a surprising victory. They have the plays to do it.

Saints Must Stop Mohler

Santa Ana's chief defensive concern will be that of stopping the two Mohler brothers, Orville and Norman, and then, if they do that, to break up Alhambra's passing attack which has been almost as much of a thorn in the side of Alhambra's opponents as the running attack constructed around Orville Mohler. Both Mohlers can

Register Will Megaphone 'Dope' on Game

As an accommodation to hundreds of Santa Ana football fans who will be unable to make the trip to Alhambra to see the Saint-Moor championship contest tomorrow, The Register has arranged to broadcast by megaphone a play-by-play story from The Register building, Third and Sycamore streets. A special telephone will connect this newspaper with the Alhambra field.

Service will begin at 2 p m., the game itself being scheduled to start at 2:15. Returns also will be given on the Stanford-California, U. S. C.-Idaho and other football struggles of importance.

Persons telephoning The Register are requested to call either 1650 or 90.

*—Tie games count as half-a-game won and half-a-game lost.

Santa Ana high school's championship aspirations hinge absolutely on the outcome of tomorrow's game at Alhambra with Coach George Hobbs' Moors.

The Saints have a perfect record aside from their early season tie with Long Beach. Alhambra is undefeated and untied. No other team in the league has a chance to win the championship. If Santa Ana wins it still must beat San Diego here Thanksgiving Day but if Alhambra wins it still could lose to South Pasadena in its last scheduled combat and win the title.

While the Saints and the Moors are fighting it out, South Pasadena and San Diego meet at San Diego; Long Beach and Pasadena, old rivals, mingle at Pasadena, and Glendale goes to Whittier where it should break its losing streak at the expense of the Poets.

Santa Ana authorities announced today that 1500 seats in the bleachers at Alhambra have been reserved for Santa Ana persons. The Alhambra stands accommodate 3000. A caravan of motor cars will leave the high school here at 11:30 a. m. and townsfolk are invited to join this "parade," which will have police escort to the football field.

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 23.—(UP)—Hal Cox defeated George Trenkle in an eight-round bout here last night. Joe Barola won a four-round semi-windup decision over Dick Frazier.

WALSH'S 98 PER CENT WRONG CLUB, PICKS STANFORD, ARMY, CARNEGIE, YALE, MINNESOTA

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Pittsburgh, Pa., West Point, N. Y., Madison, Wis., and Berkeley, Cal., will be the four points of the football compass tomorrow, the quadrangular focks of a nation's eyes. Full many a ball game will clamor for national interest elsewhere—with that hallowed institution, Harvard versus Yale, by no means in the background—but Carnegie Tech and New York university, the Army and Nebraska, Wisconsin and Minnesota and California and Stanford must and will claim major attention.

Traditional rivalry is the thing that pays off the mortgage. But overnight rivalry, engendered by the momentary prominence of the principals involved, this time takes the play away from mere tradition in at least two cases. Carnegie and N. Y. U. haven't been rivals for too many years but if Carnegie wins it will fall heir to as sound a claim on the national title as ever a team had. Likewise, West Point and Nebraska are meeting for the first time but victory will be a prize rich in the gift of its consequences.

Minnesota and Wisconsin and Stanford and California are and ever will be arch-rivals, so the fact that a sectional title is the stake in each instance draws the noose of necessity just that much tighter.

The Ninety-eight Per Cent Wrong club has just concluded its weekly meeting. The club would rather be right than be president but it doesn't look as thought it ever is going to be either. The club, according to its custom, has gone about arranging things for the week end, not wishing to leave anything to chance. In fact, about every element of chance for the winners nominated was eliminated when the club arranged the following results:

Carnegie Tech beats N. Y. U., Army beats Nebraska, Yale beats Harvard, Stanford beats California and Minnesota beats Wisconsin.

The club has averaged more than 70 per cent on major games for three straight Saturdays, thereby surprising itself among others, but it has more than lived up to its name with Wisconsin. It has been exactly 100 per cent wrong on the Badgers, so the selection of Minnesota undoubtedly will be greeted by a tremendous ovation in Milwaukee, Madison and the state in general. The club says it likes Minnesota's power, particularly on top of the bruiser Wisconsin had with Iowa last week.

The nomination of Carnegie couldn't miss after what this team did to Notre Dame. It has been playing tough ones for a month, it may be taking on a tougher one tomorrow and it may be due to fall away from its best. But only the hunch-player could string with N. Y. U. As for Nebraska, that long trek east after the Pitt game should be just enough to dull its edge sufficiently to give Army the advantage.

Stanford is selected because it generally is presumed to be the best team on the coast, regardless of its defeat by Southern California. If the Bears abide by the club's decision and graciously lose, Southern California can win the coast title by beating Idaho. The club has ordained that it will beat Idaho, going away.

GRIDDER LIKES S. A. CHANCE TOMORROW

By GRIDDER

Despite all the publicity about Alhambra's great scoring machine, Gridder, who apologizes humbly to Coach "Tex" Oliver, can't help but like the chances of Santa Ana in that big game at Alhambra tomorrow.

It is sure to be a bruising battle but Gridder believes that the Saints have the plays, the courage and the defensive strength to win the Coast Preparatory league title.

The score, we think, will be 13 to 6.

Our predictions follow:
Santa Ana 13, Alhambra 6.
Stanford 7, California 0.
U. S. C. 32, Idaho 0.
Carnegie Tech 13, New York U. 6.
Harvard 12, Yale 7.
Minnesota 13, Wisconsin 7.
Army 10, Nebraska 6.
Illinois 14, Ohio State 13.
Iowa 20, Michigan 7.
Northwestern 6, Dartmouth 0.
Princeton 13, Navy 0.
Purdue 12, Indiana 7.
Missouri 7, Kansas 6.

Sailor Teams In Championship Mix

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 23.—The United States battlefleet football championship will be held here December 1 when the team of the flagship California will meet the winner of the San Diego submarines and the fleet team for the game Sunday.

Dempsey To See Races At Border

TIJUANA, Mex., Nov. 23.—Jack Dempsey will attend the opening day of the long winter turf meet here Thanksgiving Day, he wired local track officials. The former heavyweight champion will campaign an extensive string of horses here during the winter and may see his colors in action for the opening Thanksgiving handicap feature.

Guerrero Favored In Hollywood Go

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 23.—Joe Guerrero, claimant of the Mexican lightweight championship, rules the favorite over Matt Callo, San Francisco Italian, in their scheduled 10 round headline bout here tonight.

MAY BECOME FIELDER

Now that waivers have been asked on Joe Bush, who is through as a major league pitcher, you hear that Bush may try to become an outfielder. He is a pretty good hitter.

Deny Pomona-Oxy Match Postponed

CLAREMONT, Calif., Nov. 23.—Reports that the Occidental-Pomona football game scheduled for Thanksgiving day at the Pasadena Rose Bowl would be postponed because of the illness of a number of Pomona gridders, has been denied by Coach Eugene Nixon.

MAY SEVER RELATIONS

Texas and Vanderbilt, which have been playing football annually for years, may not meet in 1929. Texas is eager to play Oklahoma university at the Texas State Fair instead of Vandy.

SEEKS JOB AT ST. PAUL

Jim Thorpe, one of the greatest football players of all time, who was a bust as a major league ball player, is reported to be after the job as manager of the St. Paul, Minn., team next year.

1929 LATHROP ELIGIBLES WIN GAME, 19 TO 13

A football team composed of players who will be eligible for football at Julia Lathrop junior high school next year scored a 19 to 13 victory over the Orange high school Class C eleven yesterday afternoon at Lathrop field.

The squad of prospective players for 1929 is one of the three teams that Coach Ferris Scott has at the South Main street school this year. The first team or "Varsity" plays only Class B opponents, while this outfit which played yesterday has met only Class C team. The 90-pound eleven takes on the high school "D" teams of the county. There are not nearly enough suits for all the teams so that on the day of a game the lightweights have to borrow suits from the big fellows.

In yesterday's contest, little Johnnie Shinto, 108-pound halfback who fills in now and then on the first team, showed several bursts of speeds that netted several first downs. His big contribution of the afternoon was when he ran back a punt 75 yards for a touchdown. Bowe and Kidder furnished some valuable interference and Bowe turned in some good gains from the fullback position.

Coach Scott is trying to schedule a game with some strong Class C squad to play a curtain-raiser to the San Diego-Santa Ana high school game here Thanksgiving Day. The Lathrop eleven will be composed entirely of players who will be back in junior high school next fall and nearly all of them will classify as "Cees." Covina has been invited to play but final arrangements were not to be made until this afternoon.

ATTENTION NOT GIVEN COLLEGE REQUIREMENTS

That there is a failure among division students to inquire into the standards for junior standing at four-year universities was brought out by Dr. E. H. Robison, examiner at U. C. L. A., when the Pacific Coast Association of Collegiate Registrars met in Riverside recently in its fourth annual convention.

From one-half to 16 credits have been lost by students transferring from junior colleges to universities, it was pointed out. Change of objective of the student has been the principal reason, it was said. Failure to follow the regulations of the universities in regard to maximum number of credits carried each semester and maximum number of credits which will be accepted at the time of application for junior standing also were cited as reasons.

Diploma courses and chorus are not given credit, Dr. Robison declared.

Cthrles J. Booth, dean of Chaffey junior college, made a plea that students having an average grade of C and a junior certificate be admitted to junior standing although they have not met junior standing requirements for a particular university.

Representatives from Santa Ana junior college at the convention were Dean McKee Fisk, Miss Mabel Whiting, D. K. Hammond and J. A. Cranston.

Junior colleges represented were San Bernardino, Riverside, Glendale, Chaffey, Sacramento, Modesto and Santa Ana.

FOOTBALL

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—With the "Big Game" of the West to be played tomorrow between the old rivals, Stanford and California, thousands of football fans were pouring into this city today. For the first time in several years, odds on the outcome of the fray are even and California was rated as having a good chance to down Stanford.

The game will be the 34th renewal of the gridiron feud.

Attendance records are expected to be broken with nearly 90,000 persons holding tickets for the game.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Three of the four Western conference games scheduled for tomorrow may decide the Big Ten championship.

Two months of competion has left the conference in a situation seldom paralleled in Big Ten history. There are several possibilities but all are dependent on the outcome of the games between Wisconsin and Minnesota; Iowa and Michigan, and Ohio and Illinois.

Notwithstanding the strong attraction of such an intersectional game as the Dartmouth-Northwestern contest at Evanston or the traditional Hoosier state title battle between Purdue and Indiana at Lafayette the conference title issue is predominant.

Wisconsin, Iowa, Ohio and Illinois all are bunched at the top of the conference heap.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Accompanied by 200 rooters and a 75-piece band on four special trains, 29 New York university football players were enroute to Pittsburgh today for their important game with Carnegie Tech tomorrow.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23.—The Carnegie Tech squad was in seclusion today at a suburban country club. Today's final practice for the N. Y. U. game will be secret and will be held on the golf links.

ANNAPOLIS, Mr., Nov. 23.—A short signal drill here this afternoon will complete Navy's preparation for Princeton. The team wil not leave for Philadelphia until tomorrow morning.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 23.—The Harvard team started for new Haven this morning heartened by the cheers of 1000 undergraduates who watched the Crimson players polish up their aerial attack yesterday.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 23.—Indications were today that Yale's injured backfield regulars will get into the Harvard game tomorrow, although some of them may not last for more than one period. A crowd of 80,000 persons is expected to witness the classic.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Army reserves will be plentiful if Nebraska's bone-crushing attack crumples the forward wall of the Cadet eleven tomorrow. Every player on the squad participated in yesterday's final scrimmage.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Fordham plans to "do a Lindbergh" against Georgetown tomorrow. Lacking an efefctive rushing attack, the Maroon will take to the air with Larry Dallaire hurling the passes.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—The big "Little Game" in these whereabouts tomorrow is the scheduled grid duel between Loyola and Gonzaga, strongest of the Northwest's minor aggregations.

"Clipper" Smith coach of the Spokane, Wash., eleevn, is confident that his charges will best the Loyola moleskin men. In this confidence, he is backed by the gentlement whose money talks. Gonzaga is a great favorite.

But Mike Pecarovich who teaches the Lions their football, has instilled a spirit of do-or-dare into his pupils and the tussle in the Yoyola stadium promises to be one worth watching.

POWERFUL WINDSLED

BEAUDETTE, Minn., Nov. 23.—(UP)—A huge windsled with a 110 H. M. airplane motor is under construction here for use this winter in carrying mail, freight and passengers between Beaudette and Northwest Angle. The route has proven troublesome durnig past winters since there is no beaten road to follow, and Harry Mitchell has conceived the idea of the surface windsled to overcome the difficulties.

TELEGRAPH OPERATOR

Fred Leach, who will be with the New York Giants next year, was a telegraph operator in Idaho when he first learned to play baseball.

SAINT-MOOR 'CEES' TO CLASH AT 12:15

A championship struggle for cellar honors will be fought tomorrow by the Class C teams of Santa Ana and Alhambra in a curtain-raiser skirmish to the first place titular game between the same schools. The preliminary game will start at 12:15 p.m. instead of at 12:45 as in the past.

Santa Ana has not much of a record, having lost every game except the one with Pasadena, which closed in a 6 to 6 tie. Alhambra has not done much better, however, losing its first three games, which included a 12 to0 loss to Long Beach and a 2 to 0 defeat by Pasadena.

Coach Clyde Cook will have an intact team except for Bill Quon, end, who is laid up with the flu. Adair Rucker, guard, broke his hand in th Pasadena brush but is expected to play. The starting lineup probably will consist of Lindsey and Howland, ends; Yould and Cole, tackles; Illingsworth and Rucker, guards, and Mellot, center. In the backfield, Morris will call signals from a halfback post, Chamberlain will play halfback and Dugger will have the fullback post.

NOVEL TRAIN HOLD-UP

KENYA COLONY, S. A., Nov. 23.—A swarm of locusts which settled on the tracks, held up a train here for two and a half hours. When the engine tried to plow through the insects, the oil from their bodies greased the rails and made the wheels slip.

WHAT'S YOUR TROUBLE?

This department is conducted by an expert radio technician, who, without cost to you, will answer any and all of your questions pertaining to radio troubles. Radio fans are invited to make use of this department, which may save them time and money on their radio sets. Address your communications to "The Radio Editor, The Register, Santa Ana."

Q—My aerial is approximately 90 feet long. Would lengthening it give me more distance and volume? Reader, Orange.

A—No doubt adding length would improve your volume and distance to a certain extent, but at a sacrifice of selectivity. 75 feet is a very good length for general use with present day receivers. This length includes the lead-in to the set.

Q—Please settle an argument. Which is the best insulator, glass or porcelain? G. D. H., City.

A—Glass. It has a dielectric constant (unit of insulation) of 7, while porcelain has only 4.

Q—The volume control on my radio makes a scratching noise in the speaker when I turn it. Have had a new one put in, but it is no better in this respect. Can't this be fixed? B. C., Balboa.

A—If it is of the wire wound type, rub a small amount of vaseline on the wire strip, but use sparingly. If it is not of this type be sure that the leads are tight, if not soldered.

Q—I have been reading an article wherein it mentions carrier telephony. What is it? F. M., City.

A—Carrier telephony uses wire lines as a carrier of radio signals, rather than the en-air. The transmitter and receiver both are coupled to the line with special equipment. Otherwise it differs little from ordinary broadcasting.

'FAUST' TO BE KGO OFFERING TONIGHT

The third act of "Faust" will be presented by the deVally Singers in the KGO studios at 10 o'clock tonight.

Henry E. Reed will have the title role, the German philosopher who sells his soul in order to regain his youth. Rebecca Scheibel Widmayer is to be cast as the betrayed Marguerite. The third important part, that of Mephistopheles, the spirit of evil, will be sung by Albert Peck Gates. Elise Juillerat has been assigned to the role of Martha, friend of Marguerite; and Madella Risca that of Siebel, a youth.

There will be a chorus of 20. Antoine deVally will direct the third act of the Gounod opera, the action of which takes place in Marguerite's garden.

MANY KINDS OF ROSES ADAPTED TO SANTA ANA

Discussions at the meeting, last night, of the Santa Ana Rose society revealed that climatic conditions in Santa Ana and Orange county are favorable to the growth of a vast variety of bush and climbing roses.

The meeting had been called for a discussion of bush and climbing varieties, with the suggestion that each member submit a list of 12 roses best adapted to culture in Santa Ana and Orange county. A. J. Perkins led the discussion. It had been intended that the discussion would lead to the choosing of 12 bush and six climbing roses best suited to amateur growing in Orange county, but it was revealed that it was impossible to limit the number to the designated 12 and six because of the superior climatic conditions here.

Following are the roses which have been successfully raised in Orange county and which the society recommends for amateur growing:

Yellow or apricot—Golden Emblem, Lady Margaret Stewart, Rev. F. Page Roberts, Claudius Pernet, Wm. F. Dreer, Lulu, Lady Hillingdon, Golden Ophilia, Mme. A. R. Waddell, Mme. Edw. Herriot, Sun Burst, Madame Alexander Dreux.

Pink or pink shades—Ophelia or Madame Butterfly, Los Angeles, Rose Marie, Pink Radiance, Willowmere, Dame Edith Helen, Shot Silk, Columbia, Lady Ashton, J. J. L. Mock, Briar Cliff.

Red—Hadley, Hoosier Beauty, Templar, Queen Alexandra, Lord Charlemont, Ulrich Brunner, Chateau de Clos Vougeot, Red Radiance.

White—Frau Karl Druschki, Kaiserian Augusta Victoria.

Climbers—Belle of Portugal, light pink; Belle Siebrecht, light pink; Cecil Brunner, light pink; Cl Los Angeles, pink with copper tone; Paul's Scarlet Climber, red; Cl Gen. McArthur, red; Paul's Lemon Pillar, yellow; Marechal Niel.

Dr. E. M. Mills, president emeritus of the American Rose society, was present and told of his recent trip of several weeks through the middle west and the southern states. Among the interesting places that he visited was the Oaklawn Monor Rose garden, in Franklin, La.

The society made plans for attending the San Diego Rose show on November 30 and for placing on exhibition roses grown in Orange county gardens. Any one interested in attending the rose show or who will furnish roses for the exhibit are advised to notify the president of the Santa Ana Rose society, J. W. Estes, or the secretary, Will S. Kellogg.

M'ADOO VICTOR IN COURT SUIT HERE

William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury of the United States, won a judgment in Superior Judge H. G. Ames' court late yesterday whereby he will not have to dig down in his pocket for $17,000.

Nettie M. Seeger, Frederick G. Seeger, Dora Wooton and Henry Wooton had brought suit against McAdoo and R. T. Colter, alleging that they had been guilty of breach of contract in connection with the drilling of an oil well in Huntington Beach.

The case was tried today before Judge Ames.

VIRGINIA GOES A'HUNTING

EXPANSION OF FARM BUREAU NEWS IS TOLD

The Orange County Farm Bureau News will blush with pride when the next issue emerges from the press and looks into the curious faces of numerous ranchers in this section who are waiting for the appearance of the monthly publication in new attire.

There will be nothing figurative about the blush, either, for the cover will be adorned in two colors, according to Norman M. Blaney, secretary of the bureau.

"In addition to the two colors on front and back, the magazine will be heavier and the contents will be improved," Blaney said today. "It will be a more attractive publication and more worthy of the organization it represents."

Blaney also announced a change in advertising managers, pointing out that Sam Meyer and Fenton B. Chaplin now are in charge of this phase of the publication.

LARGE CAST PROVES WORTH IN 'SEVENTH HEAVEN' AND WINS RESPONSE OF FIRST NIGHTERS

By ELEANOR YOUNG ELLIOTT

"Chico—Diane—Heaven!"

In those three names is encompassed the tender beauty, the poignancy and the drama of "Seventh Heaven," that delightful little play of the Paris slums, which Santa Ana Community Players presented last night as the first of a three nights' run. "Chico—Diane—Heaven" was one of the most difficult speeches of Valmer Clark in the role of "Chico" and in less skillful hands would have been reduced to bathos, but in his, achieved true pathos instead.

Unquestionably a play for youth, "Seventh Heaven" offered opportunity for an unusual number of the young members of the Santa Ana Community Players' association to prove their dramatic ability. The play was given in Yost's Spurgeon street theater and last night's audience not only was of gratifying size for a first night, but was warmly responsive to the situations both amusing and tragic, and to the charming thread of romance that wove through the theme.

Remarkable Setting

It is safe to say that everyone in the audience was all eyes as the curtain rose on the really remarkable set designed by Max Holmes. The scene is a street in the Paris slums, with the Church of Heavenly Angeles showing its stained glass windows at the rear, and is truly beautiful. Interest in the set, however, soon was transferred to the highly diverting efforts of "Boul" to start his stubborn taxi, "Eloise."

Boul was played by Albert Stueike, who brought to the part a fine sense of comedy values and appeared in a make-up that was delightfully absurd and yet extremely natural. His was the comedy role of the play and yet had occasional sympathetic touches that were equally well received. He was immediately joined on the stage by the other actors, in turn, and the popular play moved on to its climax.

Starring honors in "Seventh Heaven" are divided in the performance here, as they were in both stage and screen versions, between "Chico" and "Diane." To Valmer Clark the role of Chico offered opportunity for that nice sense of the drama that he possesses to a marked degree. He portrayed a mercurial temperament with the spontaneity that made the part very real. And the lines that, with a less competent player might have been theatrical and unreal, were given in such a convincing manner that the audience forgot it was watching a play and laughed, sympathized and suffered with Chico.

As Diane, Miss Clara Kate Owens was utterly captivating. Her tragic suffering in the first act, her girlish joy in the second and her renunciation of all belief in the third, to be followed by a realization of the workings of the "Bon Dieu," were beautifully done. No doubt future Community Players' productions will see the firm advance of Miss Owens, who will follow in the steps of her sister, Harriet Owens Enderle.

Nana, the older sister of the little Diane, offered Mona Summers Smith opportunity to prove her versatility, for, as an absinthe-crazed woman of the slums, she did a bit of character work that was far different from anything she has yet portrayed and that stamped her as an actress of great emotional power. Carriage, gait, expression, voice—all contributed to the effect and illustrated her dramatic powers.

Coming from high school and junior college successes, Miss Loretta Spangler's work as "Arlette" proved her another "find" for the Players. Her characterization was one of spirit and fire and her appearance was characteristically French in her clever little peasant blouse and bright red skirt. Her part as Arlette was secondary to Diane, but was handled so refreshingly as to make it outstanding. It was one of the interesting phases of the production to see the response offered by these two young girls to the opportunity to appear in their first dramatic production aside from school plays.

Miss Whiting in First

The fourth in this quartet of feminine members of the cast was Miss Mabel Whiting, who played "Aunt Valentine," the deprecating little old aunt whose heart yearns toward her nieces, Nana and Diane. Miss Whiting was making her bow as a Player, although she long has been a member of the association, and her sister, Mrs. Edith Thatcher, has taken prominent part in several productions.

An outstanding role was that of "Pere Chevillon," who was made a benignant and lovable character by Frank Lansdown. There were many who declared at the close of BLUNDERER OR MARTYR?

True to the unwritten law of the sea, Captain William Carey, commander of the ill-fated liner Vestris, went down with his ship. Standing alone on the boat deck, without a life belt, he died without an effort to save himself. Here you see an artist's likeness of the man whom some called blunderer, others called a martyr to tragic circumstances and his trust.

REV. GILLIES WILL SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

The Rev. James Lewis Gillies, recently appointed superintendent of the San Diego district, will preach in the First Methodist church Sunday, it was anounced today. Prior to his appointment to superintendent by Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, the Rev. Mr. Gillies was pastor of the First Methodist church in Riverside. His subject Sunday morning will be "The Pre-eminence of Christ" and in the evening his subject will be "Spectators in the Balcony."

CHRISTMAS SHOW OF ELKS DRAWS CROWD

ORANGE, Nov. 23.—A large audience was present at the Elks' Christmas charity show in the high school auditorium last night. The show will be given again tonight.

The show was booked under the direction of William Hagen and Stanley Mansur and is said to be one of the best ever presented by the local lodge. There are eight acts on the bill headed by the Shamrock and Thistle revue, eight artists appear in Scotch songs, dances and bagpipe numbers.

RUMORS SEEN AS ATTEMPT TO HURT CONCERN

The network of motor lines operated by the Motor Transit company has not been sold to the Pacific Electric Railway company or to any other railway company, it was definitely stated here today by A. M. Thomas, Santa Ana agent for the motor company.

The statement was made to refute rumors current here and else-where that the motor lines had been purchased by the Pacific Electric or Southern Pacific company.

F. D. Howell, vice president and general manager of the bus lines, notified Thomas that the "rumors are so insistent that it appears to be a malicious attempt to injure the Motor Transit company in its standing in the communities and in the minds of the public which it now serves.

"The Motor Transit company has never offered the Motor Transit system to the Pacific Electric railway, the Southern Pacific company or other railroad companies, nor in any manner intimated that it was for sale, or that it was desirous of selling, and I can assure you that there is no pending deal for the sale of Motor Transit company and no thought in the minds of the Motor Transit company's officers that they will sell the Motor Transit. Motor Transit company's officers, directors and management hope for many more years of public service along the lines of the present operations and desire to express appreciation for the friendly relations that now exist between themselves and patrons and the communities served.

HINT FOR PRISONERS

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23.—There have been countless instances of persons being thrown into prison for getting "plastered," but here is an instance where a convict plastered himself out of jail. It recently come to the attention of the federal court that Kenneth Frye had done $600 worth of plastering on the jail walls. He was immediately summoned and paroled. Frye was in jail because of transporting a stolen auto.

Mrs. Robert E. Reid Is Hostess at Luncheon

Mrs. Robert E. Reid was hostess yesterday to a small group of friends at a pretty luncheon and bridge party held at her home on Heliotrope drive. Mrs. Reid used bouquets of gay chrysanthemums in decorating her home for the occasion which was informal.

Adding to the interest of the affair was the presence of Miss Rena Boyd of 801 North Main street who has just returned from an extended visit with relatives in Virginia. Miss Boyd told in entertaining fashion of many of the amusing incidents which had occurred on the trip which she took in company with her brother, Dr. J. P. Boyd.

Dr. and Miss Boyd spent some time in New York where the former visited the College of Medicine at New York University from which he graduated fifty years ago. While there he was introduced to the students and was asked to address them.

From New York the two went to Washington, D. C., where they visited the many places familiar to them in their childhood days. While in Virginia they motored to many of the points of historic interest and visited the College of Virginia at Bristol, Tenn., where Miss Boyd was a student.

One motor trip of particular interest was that from Bristol to Norfolk, over a road 400 miles in length, which had been built when Dr. Boyd was a boy and he was a member of the surveying crew which planned the highway.

Delightful Party Held In Honor of Bride

One of the pleasant pre-nuptial courtesies extended Miss Helen McPeak during the past week was a party at the J. T. Raitt home at which members of the Pro-To-I-Daka Sunday school class of the United Presbyterian church were guests. Mrs. Elsie Woodward and Mrs. Raitt were hostesses at the delightful affair.

Following a happy afternoon, during which guests hemmed tea towels for the honoree, a dainty refreshment course was served.

Guests at the affair included Mrs. Donald Hillyard, Mrs. Opal Simon, Mrs. Paul Eby, Mrs. R. Carson Smith, Mrs. Harold Finley, Mrs. Harold W. Finley, Mrs. Leland Finley, Mrs. Ralph Raitt, Mrs. D. V. Dennis, Mrs. F. E. Davies, Mrs. William C. Stroschein, Mrs. W. H. McPeak and Miss Helen McPeak.

Rev. Perry F. Schrock Speaks to Women On "Mexico"

Telling of the need for missions and schools in Mexico, the Rev. Perry F. Schrock, pastor of the First Congregational church, addressed the missionary department of the Woman's Union of the church, at the annual thank offering meeting of the organization which was held at the home of Mrs. Ella Campau, 801 French street.

The Rev. Mr. Schrock returned recently from a three weeks' trip through Mexico which he took in company with three other men interested in the Mission work of the Congregational church. They spent some time in Guadalajuara, Masatlan and Hermicille.

The speaker pointed out that the new president of Mexico is interested in the educational movement which is gaining momentum in that country which should prove an aid to missionaries there. He added, however, that there is a great need for schools as some parts of the country are subject to the lowest forms of poverty which is due to the complete ignorance in which the nation has been kept in the past.

He reported that he was pleased with the work which is now being accomplished there by the Congregational missions.

The thank offering programs which followed his address included a delightful little talk by Mrs. Sally Powell in which she enumerated the blessings for which members of the church should offer thanks.

Mrs. L. P. Hitchcock led the devotionals and two lovely duets, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," from an arrangement by Rockwell and "Count Your Blessings," were given by Mrs. W. H. Crose.

At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostess committee which included Mrs. Campau, Mrs. F. O. Calkins, Mrs. C. C. Langley and Mrs. Herbert Krahling. Mrs. N. A. Beals, Mrs. E. M. Blake and Miss Lida Cruickshank assisted in presiding at athe tea tables.

Miss Mabel Helming Is Complimented

Miss Mabel Helming, daughter of Mrs. C. L. Helming of West Walnut street, who is to marry Ralph Hunter of Long Beach soon, was honored this week at an attractive bridge luncheon given for her by Mrs. Thomas Height and Mrs. George Lemke at the Height ranch home.

Bridge prizes were awarded Miss Clara Carmichael and Miss Janey Vanderveer and at the same time Miss Helming was presented with a basket of lovely gifts for her new home.

The guest list included Miss Helming, the guest of honor and Mrs. R. L. Spaugh, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Elmer Calkins and Miss Jo Annis Rudder of Whittier; Mrs. Myron Hart of Venice; Miss Janey Vanderveer of Anaheim; Misses Clara and Marcia Carmichael of Garden Grove; Miss Eleanor Kent and Miss Ruth Churchill of Long Beach and Miss Helen Kobler and Miss Madeline Clarkson of Orange.

Fullerton Women Are Bridge Hostesses

Mrs. E. J. Marks and Mrs. Verne Bishop of this city were guests Wednesday of Mrs. A. R. Volk and Mrs. A. P. Wiese of Fullerton who entertained with a bridge luncheon at the Mission Inn in that city.

The thanksgiving motif was carried out in clever fashion at the luncheon tables which were centered with bouquets of gay autumn blossoms.

Both bridge and hearts were enjoyed throughout the afternoon. When bridge scores were added at the end of the play, it was found that Mrs. S. A. Salveson of Fullerton was high, Mrs. Julia Carpenter of Fullerton was second and Mrs. B. A. Brown of Fullerton was third.

At hearts, Mrs. Arthur Staley of Fullerton was high, Mrs. J. Charles Thamer of Fullerton was second high, and Mrs. W. H. Schureman of Anaheim was third. Attractive prizes were presented each of the winners.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Daughters of Union Veterans will entertain their department president, Mrs. Nellie Noble of Pasadena, at a luncheon at Rose Arbor Inn Tuesday preceding the meeting of the organizations at which Mrs. Noble will be an official visitor. Any member of the local tent who wishes to attend the luncheon is requested to notify Mrs. J. R. Moore, 1914W.

Ebell's First Current Events section will meet Tuesday for a 12:30 o'clock luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. Harvey Bennett and Mrs. Harvey Gardner will be hostesses at the affair. Those unable to come are to notify Mrs. Gardner at 717M.

Santa Ana W. C. T. U. will hold an hour of thanksgiving and praise Monday afternoon, 2 o'clock, at the First Baptist church.

The Kings Daughters of the Reformed Presbyterian church will hold their annual thanksgiving meeting at the church, First and Spurgeon street on Monday evening. The MIXING BOWL by ANN MEREDITH

Another Evaporated Milk Idea

Corn and Cheese Scallop is chosen for the Evaporated Milk recipe today. In this recipe we have a judicious assembling of proteins and starches and a substitute for meat.

CORN AND CHEESE SCALLOP
1 cup canned corn
3-4 cup evaporated milk
3-4 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 egg, well beaten
1-2 cup dried crumbs
2 tablespoons grated cheese
Salt and pepper to taste
Paprika for top garnish

Add the evaporated milk to the boiling water, mix with the corn and all the remaining ingredients, except the lemon juice, in the order given. The lemon juice is added last. Pour the mixture into a shallow buttered baking dish, set it in a pan of hot water and bake in a slow oven until nicely set. Four portions in this recipe.

An extra quantity of cheese mixed with half a cup of buttered crumbs, sprinkled over the top of the scallop is a decided addition to looks and flavor.

Potatoes should not be served with this dish but two cooked vegetables may be: Buttered cabbage and plain, mashed winter squash or yellow turnips are appropriate.

TODAY'S RECIPES
Halibut Au Gratin
1 pound cold cooked halibut
4 tablespoons butter
2 1-2 tablespoon flour
1 1-4 cups milk
Dash of nutmeg
Salt and Pepper
2 tablespoons grated cheese
4 tablespoons crumbs.

In making this cream sauce base evaporated milk might be used—1-2 cup of milk and 3-4 cup of water mixed.

First, let's boil the fish; buy it in one slice, wash and wipe it. Tie the fish loosely in a clean cloth and cook in water seasoned with lemon juice or vinegar, a bit of onion, salt and bay leaf.

Lift out and let cool before removing from the cloth. Remove all skin and bones and flake the fish.

The next step is making the cream sauce—in this instance a thick one. Melt and blend butter, flour and seasonings, add the liquor and cook. Have a buttered baking dish ready, pour in the thick sauce and drop the fish flakes on top, pressing them gently into the sauce. Right here is where the "dash of nutmeg" belongs; be gentle with it, please.

Mix the crumbs and cheese with a little paprika, sprinkle over the fish and bake in a moderate oven until the top is nicely browned.

There are four generous portions in this recipe, the calories total nearly 1400 with half of that amount in the sauce and crumbs. Various types of proteins account for the other calories.

I hope everyone interested in economical cooking and meat substitutes has clipped the introductory evaporated milk recipes.

They should be pasted on the back of the evaporated milk leaflet we are offering this week. WHAT'S IN A CAN OF CONDENSED MILK? And, you won't forget to enclose the stamped, self-addressed envelope, will you?

A. W. S. Cabinet Holds Dinner, Meeting at Northcross Home

Selections from the world's most famous writers added to the charm of the place cards chosen last night by Mrs. Robert Northcross, dean of women at the Santa Ana junior college, when she entertained the cabinet officers of the Associated Women students of the junior college, at dinner.

Following the dinner which was served at card tables centered with attractive bouquets of gay autumn flowers, a business meeting was held when the work of the association for the coming year was outlined. It was decided to hold a dance at the college gym some time before Christmas.

Mrs. Northcross's guests included Miss Janet Wilson, Miss Margaret Glenn, Miss Alice Prather, Miss Catherine Jessupp, Miss Marie Huber, Miss Florence Brownridge, Miss Frances Harper, Miss Roberta Ley, Miss Lou Pomeroy, Miss Rose Marie Smith, Miss Susannah Erbe and Miss Pauline Prescott.

Worthy Matrons Are Luncheon Guests

Mrs. W. R. Sylvester, of El Modena, worthy matron of Santa Ana chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was hostess this week at a delightfully appointed luncheon at which Eastern Star officials were the guests.

Red candles and bright Holly berries created a cheery atmosphere.

Mrs. Sylvester's guests included Mrs. Minnie E. Pyle, deputy grand matron; Mrs. Robertson, sponsor for the worthy matrons of Orange county; Mrs. Margaret Connor of Fullerton, Mrs. Rosalie Williams of Brea; Mrs. Clara Holland of Yorba Linda, Mrs. Clara Hanley of Orange, Mrs. Henrietta Hardage of Anaheim, Mrs. Waneta Schneider of Buena Park, Mrs. Edith Lee of Huntington Beach, Mrs. Jeanett Tarpley of Santa Ana, Mrs. Anna Larson of Garden Grove.

The afternoon was spent in reviewing the work of the order which has been accomplished during the past year and in planning the installations of officers for the coming year.

To dress up the lowly cream potato soup, chop some sour grass or water cress into it just before serving, and serve with croutons.

Rev. George Burlingame Will Be Complimented

Members of the congregation of the First Baptist church have completed plans for a reception to be held at the church tonight in honor of the Rev. George E. Burlingame, who has been acting pastor of the church for the past year, and Mrs. Burlingame.

The Rev. Mr. Burlingame came to Santa Ana a year ago to take charge of the parish when the Rev. Otto S. Russell resigned. The new pastor, The Rev. Harry Evan Owings, will take charge of the local church next week, after which the Rev. Mr. Burlingame will take a month's vacation before resuming his work.

Tonight's reception will start at 7:30 o'clock.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN!

Here is something that is rapidly gaining friends among women who are particular about their health and appearance.

Kosan is the name of this modern product—it is an antiseptic douche powder, put up in the most convenient form. There is nothing else like it on the market.

Your druggist sells Kosan (the sum of the name) in two sizes, Fifty Cents and One Dollar.

Miss Hazel Dawson Is Enjoying Visit In Shanghai

Mrs. W. B. Tedford of 2002 North Broadway has received an interesting and entertaining lettre from Miss Hazel Dawson, formerly household economics teacher at the Santa Ana high school, who is enjoying a leisurely trip around the world.

The letter was written in Shanghai, China, where Miss Dawson is planning to spend two months. She had come to Shanghai directly from Japan where she spent several weeks in visiting points of interest in the kimona country.

While in Shanghai, Miss Dawson will stay at the Aster house from where she will visit towns in the surrounding vicinity.

The following is an excerpt from Miss Dawson's letter to Mrs. Tedford:

"I have been to the consular general's home to tea; to a Little Theater production of American players; to the German club the night Baron von Huenefeld arrived with his plane 'Europa' (monocle intact); to the big brass factory for art pieces; "To the dogs," which means 'whippet races at night;' to the French convent for orphans for linens and laces; to a rug factory; to the horses races, which really means a breed of Manchurian ponies; to a review for Admiral Bristol, head of the Asiatic fleet of 3000 American troops; to the 'Pittsburgh,' which is his flagship, for dinner; to the country club ofr a tea in my honor.

"I find it hard to believe that I am seeing so much of Shanghai with so little effort. Next week end I plan to go up to Hanchow as a guest to see things one does not see here."

Miss Dawson's address is American Express, Shanghai.

November Party Is Held At F. M. Thomas Home

Miss Gladys Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Thomas of 914 South Main street was hostess last night to members of Mrs. L. D. Mercereau's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church at a delightful party held at her home.

Miss Thomas was assisted in her hostess duties by members of the November entertainment committee who included Mrs. Clyde Plavan, Mrs. Josephine Morgan, Miss Gladys Thomas, Miss Esther Ebersold and Miss Doris Scofield.

As many guests are busy with Christmas sewing the social hours of the affair were devoted to sewing and fancy work after which delicious refreshments, consisting of baked apples and cream, chocolate, and doughnuts, were served.

At a business meeting which preceded the party, officers for the coming year were elected. They included Mrs. George Lackaye, president; Miss Helen Howell, vice president; Mrs. Marie Smith, secretary; Miss Frances Vieira, treasurer; Miss Gladys Thomas, missionary treasurer; Mrs. Curtis Burrows, flower committee; Mrs. E. H. Mueller, Mrs. Raymond Marsile, Mrs. Lorey Roehm, Mrs. Orlo Housholder, Miss Lucy Hafer and Miss Juanita Snyder, lookout committee.

MOSCOW MUSHROOMS

Russians serve mushrooms in innumerable appealing ways. One of the most delectable is made as follows: Boil a pound of mushrooms, pink ones if obtainable, very gently in salt water until tender. Drain carefully. Beat one egg and jump the cooked mushrooms around in it. Then put them, again carefully, so they will stay whole, into a pan of hot butter and brown evenly. Serve on round pieces of toast, garnished with water cress.

YOU and Your Friends

Fashion Hints

GREEN HANKIES

Some very fine new French hankies are made of light green linen, plaided in darker green, with orange lines for gaiety.

BRAID TRIMMING

The girl with a handy needle can greatly add to the beauty of her wardrobe this winter. Especially if she chooses to make herself a white silk blouse, with a striking modernistic motif worked out in gaudy, very narrow braids. Some beautiful color combinations are used.

SHOE LUGGAGE

This luxury age now produces shoe luggage the size of suit cases, with covered partitions for shoes. Opened, it looks like a regular case for a dozen pairs.

POINTED DECOLLETAGE

A bronze lace evening gown, with jeweled shoulder straps, has its square front and back neckline cut in sharp points.

ANKLET SOCKS

Winter sports promise bright ankles. For those in a genuine vogue among the younger folks now for orange, scarlet, hunter's green and bright blue angora socks, worn over the stockings.

YOUR CHILDREN

by Olive Roberts Barton

©1928 by NEA Service, Inc.

I often wonder if we are getting too stereotyped in our ideas of child training.

Routine is an excellent thing but there is such a thing as becoming so mechanically perfect that we drain the whole affair of red blood, so to speak.

Children nowadays are run pretty much on schedule. They get up, go to bed, are fed, exercised, and taught by the clock. But aren't we, and they, losing something by this automatic arrangement of things in general.

The other day when we went to a friend's house for dinner it occurred to me that I had not seen her children for at least a year.

Followed Routine

I inquired for them. They were well. They were in bed. They had had their usual light supper at 5:30.

The last time I had seen them was one afternoon when they were brought into the living room to see some callers. They made curtsies, and did the usual things that well-behaved children do. But otherwise they were just like so much furniture. They soon were taken out. I know nothing about them or they about me.

Compare these children to those of another family where we went to dinner a few nights later. These children were, by the way, extreme examples of the "self-expression" school. Their parents announced when they were born that they were to do as they pleased.

Everyone has been aghast at some of the performances of "those kids." I myself have shaken my head in disapproval many a time. I was to have a surprise.

Gracious, Respectful

We were admitted by the oldest boy who stated that they were short of help and he was doing what he could to help out. The head doorman of Buckingham Palace could have been no more courtly and gracious in receiving kingly cousins.

We were ushered solicitously upstairs, and to my apology that we were a bit late, this boy of 10 assured me that it didn't make a bit of difference and hoped we would enjoy our dinner.

Those three children charmed me. They helped serve, and they knew how. It was an emergency which they had been taught to meet, and did.

I warmed to the whole three. They stayed awhile after dinner and then disappeared discreetly. But not before we had had a chance to sense the strong personality of each one. They knew all their mother's friends. They are not rude but they are not afraid to talk. They are a part of the social life of the house.

Don't say it can't be done until you have tried a Register Classified ad. Phone 87.

AT THE THEATERS

YOST'S SPURGEON

The sale of seats for the engagement of Guy Bates Post in Franz Molnar's merry and somewhat naughty comedy, coming to the Yost Spurgeon theater, Tuesday evening, November 27 is gratifying to all concerned. It assures large audiences for the presentation.

Molnar's play has no pyjamas, night gowns r obedroom scene. It is stylish, with epigram, neat retort, and an amazing series of situations which keep the spectator on mental tenterhooks—dreading the worst, which never comes.

WEST END

Western drama at its best is shown in "Hello Cheyenne!" It is, without doubt, one of the most entertaining features that Tom Mix has ever made. All the dash, color and drama of the West that usually mark Mix pictures are here shown in abundance.

Mix runs head-on into trouble when he wins his weekly race between the horse-driven stage and the motor stage. Finally wrecking his stage, Mix is fired. Offered a position with the Cody construction gang, he gladly accepts. Cody is building the first telephone line between Cheyenne and Rawhide.

YOST'S BROADWAY

There is a touch of romance and a thrill in "Grip of the Yukon," the Universal picture, now showing at the Broadway theater, that will set the blood tingling through the veins of the most critical theater-goer.

It is one of the most vivid screen versions of the great snow wastes of Alaska that local fans have had the pleasure of witnessing in many a day. The story is an original photoplay written by Charles A. Logue and has one of the most unique plots ever worked into a story of this type.

WEST COAST-WALKER

Opening toady at the West Coast-Walker theater, "Varsity" presented Charles ("Buddy") Rogers in his first "talkie."

When Director Frank Tuttle decided to film "Varsity" on the Princeton campus for Paramount, he faced many troublesome conditions. He had to transport a whole company across the continent. He needed undergraduate actors to give authenticity to the scenes. He needed to put the scenes through with dispatch, without too much time for rehearsals.

Tuttle's fears increased as he neared the campus. Could the students act? Would he find the student players he wanted? It was with these questions uppermost in his mind that he approached Dr. Donald Clive Stuart, pofessor of drama at the university. But Dr. Stuart wasn't worried. He presented Tuttle with five young men who had proved their ability in the famous Triangle Club performances.

These five young men, Phillips Holmes, Frank A. Baker, Charles Arnt, Jack Tappin and Don Lowry were given roles.

When Tuttle returned to the coast, the sequences of his picture had these five young men in prominent roles, capably acted, and he had with him young Holmes who returned to Hollywood to take part in further scenes of the picture.

Late News From Orange County Communities

Community Chest Is Organized By Citizens Of Brea

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM FOR LAGUNA BEACH

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 23.—Plans for the Thanksgiving program to be given by school children under the general direction of Principal George K. Bingham at the Community club have been perfected.

The presentation is to be a comic opera and will be given at the clubhouse the evening of November 27 at 7:30 o'clock. The auditorium at the school house is not finished and is not available for use yet.

The program outlined commences with an orchestra selection, followed by a recitation, "Then and Now," by Marjorie Gowan. The operetta is in three acts, two scenes in the first and second acts, one in the third.

LEGION PREPARES FOR ANNUAL DANCE

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 23.—Preparations for the sixth annual American Legion New Year's hi-jinks were under way here today. The affair is to be staged this year in the new Rendezvous ballroom.

E. B. "Dick" Whitson has been placed in charge of arrangements for the hi-jinks.

TURKEY SHOOT NOV. 25

BREA, Nov. 23.—Placards along the highway leading to the rifle range of the Brea American Legion post in Tonner canyon announces that the annual turkey shoot is to be held there November 25 and that plans have been made to take care of all sportsmen who gather for the event. In addition to the clay pigeons there will be the rifle range and the best marksmen will enjoy turkey on Thanksgiving day at the expense of the Legionnaires.

Inspector Named By Brea Council; Hall Ready Soon

BREA, Nov. 23.—W. C. Churchill has been appointed by the city council as city building inspector, the position having been left vacant through the resignation of Rose Lee.

Plans are progressing for the moving of the city council chamber to the new city hall so that the first meeting in December may be held in the new quarters. Several new pieces of furniture, including desks, chairs and filing cabinents, have been ordered for the council chambers and are expected to arrive shortly.

NEW SCHOOL IN H. B. HIGH AREA IS POSSIBILITY

A movement is under way by the Parent-Teacher organizations of Fountain Valley, Oceanview, Westminster and Boiea for the opening of an Americanization school for the benefit of the Japanese and Mexican population of these districts.

The idea was originated by Mrs. Charles Preston, president of the Fountain Valley P-T. A. Mrs. Preston, with Mrs. Florence Summers of Newport Beach, who is editor of the P.-T. A. magazine, and authorized to teach in Americanization work, have met with the trustees of the Huntington Beach high school, of which district these grammar school districts form a part, and talked over the advisability of the project with them. They were advised to get in touch with the presidents of all of the above named parent-teacher organizations and ask them to meet with the trustees at the next meeting and bring a report on the number of prospective pupils for such a school in each school district.

Twenty-one pupils are necessary, according to school law, to secure financial assistance and if this is done the state will furnish $6000 per year for the benefit of the school.

LA HABRAN INJURED IN MACHINE CRASH

LA HABRA, Nov. 23.—C. C. Ross is confined to his home on Mountain View avenue as the result of an auto accident on Ocean avenue yesterday, when he was struck by a large car driven by J. C. Cody, of 620 West Commonwealth avenue, Fullerton.

The accident occurred when Cody came over the hill west. Noticing a group of six or eight mules in the road on their way to the Bastanchury rance, he tried to avoid hitting the mules and struck the Ross car which was stationed near the foot of another hill.

Ross sustained a concussion of the brain. The extent of his injuries are unknown. His car was a total wreck.

Cody is a tool pusher for the Superior Oil company at Santa Fe Springs and was only slightly injured. Both men were on their way to work at the Springs when the accident occurred.

MAYOR MILLER SELECTED FOR WATER BOARD

ANAHEIM, Nov. 23.—Mayor H. R. Miller was appointed to represent the city of Anaheim on the Metropolitan water board by members of the city council at the regular meeting of the council here last night. Mayor Miller had previously appointed O. E. Stewart for this position but upon the suggestion of the council members, who were of the opinion that a member of the board of trustees should hold the position, Mayor Miller accepted the appointment.

The tree planting program outlined for the southwestern portion of the city was considered. Protests on the proposed plan were to have been heard at this time.

A communication was received from Carl Schmitzler, a property owner on South Thalia street, in regard to a number of walnut trees to take the place of shade trees in the parking, said trees growing in the lots but extending over and shading the sidewalk. The matter was taken under consideration.

The resolution on the tree planting program will be heard at the next meeting of the council, November 30. The district includes parkings on Cherry, Chestnut, Cypress, Elm, Pearl, Santa Ana, South Third street, South Thalia, West and Walnut streets and Crane, Carleton, Damon, Ellsworth, Pythias, Stueckle and Valencia avenues. Assessments are to be made to cover the cost and the annual maintenance for a period of three years.

A report from J. S. Bouldin, chief of police, showed $250 collected in fines during the month of October. The appointment of E. K. Caverly as a patrolman to serve without pay made by the chief of police was ratified by the council.

The city clerk was instructed to renew the compensation insurance carried by the city. The second reading of ordinance No. 528, regarding the installation of stop signals on Palm street was read and adopted.

At the coming meeting on November 30 bids will be received for the installation of a new switch board at the city power house.

Lantern Theater In Brea Is Closed

BREA, Nov. 23.—E. H. Barbour, for the past five months manager of the Red Lantern theater, has closed the doors of that show house, stating that he had found it impossible to make a profit because of the high rent he was forced to pay.

The building belongs to the Brea Investment company but is under a 10-year lease to W. W. Whitson, of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Barbour plan to continue conducting the Varsity inn, a confectionery and lunch counter adjoining the theater building.

ANAHEIM MAN FACES SERIOUS CHARGE AFTER FATAL CRASH; INQUEST OVER GIRL DELAYED

LOS ALAMITOS, Nov. 23.—While Lester Rombaugh, 22, of Anaheim is recovering from minor injuries received in an automobile accident at Hawaiian Gardens early yesterday morning, sheriff's officers in Los Angeles are investigating the crash which took the life of Mrs. Lea Wilkey Otte, 18, of Los Alamitos, with a view toward pressing manslaughter charges against Rombaugh.

Mrs. Otte, pretty divorcee and mother of a year and a half old baby girl, was killed when the light coupe in which they were riding crashed into a telegraph pole at the side of the highway.

Rombaugh is being held in the jail ward of the Los Angeles general hospital. His condition was reported improved this morning and attaches of the ward stated that he was not seriously hurt. Severe cuts and bruises form the major portion of his injuries.

The date of an inquest over the body of Mrs. Otte has not been set. Information from the office of the Los Angeles county coroner was to the effect that the inquest might be held tomorrow or Monday. The coroner was waiting in the hope that Rombaugh may be able to testify. The girl's body is at the Hartzler Funeral home at Norwalk, where it was taken soon after the accident. Rombaugh was placed under arrest immediately following the accident by Officers White and Hall of the Norwalk sheriff's substation.

Rombaugh is said to have been found soon after the accident standing beside the body of Mrs. Otte. He at first denied any knowledge of the accident and is reported to have told officers that he did not know the woman, although he later identified her. A broken bottle, said by officers to have contained liquor, was found under Rombaugh's car and another bottle containing a white fluid was found in his possession, according to a report from the sheriff's substation at Norwalk.

For the past year Rombaugh has been employed by the Industrial Fuel company in Anaheim. Mrs. Otte and Rombaugh left the Otte home at Los Alamitos Wednesday evening about 8 p. m. for a ride. The accident occurred at 5 a. m., Thursday morning.

No funeral arrangements have been made as relatives of the girl are awaiting the result of the inquest. She is survived by her child, her father and a brother and sister, all residing in Los Alamitos.

Burbank Caravan Tours Beach City

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 23.—A caravan of automobiles from Burbank visited Newport Beach and Balboa yesterday afternoon. The caravan was escorted by state motorcycle officers and represented various industrial concerns and businesses in the city of Burbank.

BABY IS BORN

LOS ALAMITOS, Nov. 23.—A six and a half pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oiman Taylor, Thursday at the Artesia hospital. She has been named Yvonne Leone. Mrs. Taylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fiero Gillis of Howard street.

VIOLIN CONCERT IS SET FOR DECEMBER 7

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 23.—Vladimir Lonski, noted violinist, is to give a concert in this city in December as a benefit to the piano fund of the Community club.

Music lovers of this city have joined with the community club in arousing interest in the event, which is the first recital to be given by an outstanding musician this season.

The Community club purchased a grand piano about a year or more ago. Subsequently the grounds and building were improved, imposing considerable burden of debt on the organization. The Lonski recital is one of a series of events of various kinds which are being given. The most recent was a "Taxes dance," given to raise money to be used in meeting the taxes due on the property.

Lonski uses a violin said to be more than 400 years old.

SPRINGDALE WOMAN DIES IN LONG BEACH

WESTMINSTER, Nov. 23.—Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Christian church in Huntington Beach for Mrs. Rhoda Gerhart, 60, of Springdale, who died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Shepherd, in Long Beach where she went to attend a birthday celebration. She did not regain consciousness.

The services will be conducted by the Rev. Hurst, pastor of the church, and funeral arrangements are in charge of the Dixon funeral parlor. Mrs. Gerhart is survived by her husband, George Gerhart. The Gerharts have been residents in this vicinity for the past 23 years. Other survivors are, two sisters, Mrs. Mollie Kenett, who lives in Illinois and Mrs. Carrie Shepherd, of Long Beach; two brothers, Allen Craig, of Berkeley, Wn., and William Craig, of Indianapolis.

Interment will be made in the Central Memorial cemetery.

SEWER SYSTEM PROJECTED IN SAN CLEMENTE

SAN CLEMENTE, Nov. 23.—At a meeting of the city council last night, W. A. Ayer, city engineer, was appointed superintendent of streets and instructed to secure plans and specifications so that San Clemente will have scientific information when it plans a sewer system.

Ayer will start his investigation immediately and for the next six months will have a crew of men working under his direction. A new engineering office will be established. It is planned to have this office in the block now occupied by the city's offices.

The water committee reported progress in its investigation and Mayor Murphine instructed the council to continue its investigation.

Earl Von Bonhorst reported that he had ordered a truck for the water department. Ayer stated he had installed water meters and was watching water consumption with an idea of fixing a price for water in this town.

The council passed a resolution making November 23 of each year St. Clemente's day. Next year it is planned to make the day one of great celebration. This year, Capt. H. H. Hammer, secretary of the chamber of commerce, has charge of the ceremonies.

THREE SUITS STOLEN OF ANAHEIM HOMES

ANAHEIM, Nov. 23.—J. W. Maddux, 843 South Claudina street, reported today that two suits of clothes had been taken from his home between the hours of 6:30 and 9:30 p. m.

Maddux reported that the bedrooms had been ransacked and that although jewelry was scattered over the dressers nothing had been missed save the clothing. Entrance was thought to have been made by means of the bedroom window and the intruders left by the front door.

H. T. Leo, 501 North Clementine street, reported a dark suit removed from his home.

Desert Meeting Results In New Family For Beach

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 23.—A chance meeting on the desert brought a new family to Balboa today. The newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dale and two children, of Boston. The meeting took place in Arizona between the Dale family and W. S. Williamson, father of Harry H. Williamson, city councilman.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale came to California several weeks ago. They settled in Los Angeles, where Mr. Dale sought work. He failed to find a position. The family decided to return to Boston.

Williamson told them of Newport harbor and so graphic was his description that the Dales turned their car about and headed back for California. They have rented a house in Balboa at 703 East Central avenue and will make their permanent home here if Dale is successful in finding employment.

CLASS AT MESA PRESENTS PLAY IN SCHOOL SOON

COSTA MESA, Nov. 23.—The Loyal Workers class of the Costa Mesa Community church will pay off a portion of the $1000 pledge to the church building fund with proceeds realized from a play to be presented here the evening of November 30. The play will be given in the grammar school auditorium. Members of the class under the direction of Mrs. F. A. Daley have been groomed for their parts for the past several weeks.

The class will present a comedy entitled, "Oh, What a Family."

John Jones plays the leading male role. Mrs. Delores Merrison, Mrs. Lola Anderson, Mrs. Lettie Bell, Mrs. Betty Slothower, Mrs. W. M. Cornwell, M. Haywood and Ernest Armstrong have prominent parts in the production.

CRUSADERS TO SING

PLACENTIA, Nov. 23.—Sunday will be decision day for the Sunday school of the Presbyterian church as a part of the loyalty crusade. In the evening the Crusaders will hold a song service.

OFFICERS FOR YEAR ELECTED $2500 DESIRED

BREA, Nov. 23.—Representatives of practically every civic and fraternal organization in Brea, as well as its churches and schools, met at noon yesterday in Casa Brea inn for the purpose of forming a permanent Community Chest.

The movement began with the Lions club and Legion post of Brea, R. H. Peterkin and Waldo Miner having been delegated to represent these respective organizations. Peterkin acted as temporary chairman. After discussion of ways and means it was resolved that the delegates present be declared members of a permanent Community chest organization and officers were elected as follows: R. H. Peterkin, president; R. E. Barnes, secretary-treasurer; board of directors, F. J. Schweitzer, Mrs. Ethelyn Gnagy, Mrs. Clara Closs, Mrs. Lulu Friend and Waldo Miner.

A meeting of the new officers and board will be held at once and plans launched for the campaign, the goal of which has been placed at $2500. Ministers and physicians of the city have been named as ex-officio members of the board.

BREA FIRM SHIPS 62 CARS TOMATOES

BREA, Nov. 23.—The S. J. Gallagher packing plant east of Brea has been turned over to the Bastanchury Ranch company for the winding up of the tomato crop from that ranch. The Gallagher company has shipped 62 carloads of tomatoes from Brea this season over the Pacific Electric. If fair weather continues it is expected that the season will stretch into another two weeks. The local fields are dotted with pickers, gathering the last of the crop.

To Check Flu-Grip

Fight the Germs with Vapors Before they can Get a Start

Treat all Colds Promptly but be Careful not to Disturb the Digestion with Too Much Dosing

Whether the epidemic of deep grippy colds in this section is really the "flu" or not, every precaution should be taken to prevent its further spread. These attacks, which appear to be much more severe than usual, are generally accompanied by a headache, burning eyeballs, and aching scalp, and are often complicated by digestive disturbances. But they begin, as a rule, with an ordinary cold.

Too often, these colds are neglected until they have lowered the vitality and permitted the lurking germs of influenza, bronchitis, or pneumonia to "get a foothold."

The only safe plan is to attack a cold at the very start. A hot bath, a laxative, and a vigorous application of Vicks VapoRub on the throat and chest at bedtime, will usually break up a cold overnight.

An External Treatment with a Quick, Twofold Action

Two hours after Vicks is applied, its ingredients, time-tested remedies, such as camphor, menthol, eucalyptus, thyme and turpentine, are vaporized by the warmth of the body, and inhaled deep into the inflamed air passages. There they attack the germs directly, loosen the phlegm, clear the head, and permit you to get to sleep.

At the same time, the ointment acts through the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" all tightness and pain, and helping the vapors to break up the congestion.

Avoids Upsetting Stomach and thus Lowering Vitality

This simple external treatment cannot disturb your digestion, as too much "dosing" is so apt to do. This is doubly important when "flu" is around, for your stomach, as well as your respiratory organs, must be kept in good condition in order to keep your body resistance at its highest level.

For this reason, too, mothers prefer Vicks for the frequent colds of children. It can be used freely and often, even on the youngest child, with no fear of upsetting a delicate stomach.

A Few Simple Precautions to Help Ward off the Flu

When influenza colds are prevalent, you can almost always prevent infection by snuffing a little Vicks well up the nostrils every night and morning, or before exposure to crowds.

Don't worry; build up your health and strength; eat plain, simple food; breathe pure fresh air; get plenty of outdoor exercise; keep away from unnatural places; and—at the first sign of every cold—rub on Vicks VapoRub. —Adv.

CITY OF SANTA ANA

6% Municipal Improvement Bonds

Exempt From California Personal Property and Federal Income Taxes

We have on hand and in process of issuance approximately $90,000.00 of Street Improvement Bonds in $1000 and smaller denominations covering paving and ornamental lighting improvements in good districts in various parts of the city.

These are 1 to 10 year serial bonds (principal paid in one sum) issued under the 1915 Act. This Act provides that assessments be collected with and made a part of general taxes. The bonds are comparable to school and general obligation bonds in that the issuing City is obligated to levy an ad valorem tax upon all taxable property to pay delinquencies, if any, in principal and interest.

Santa Ana 1915 Act bonds enjoy an excellent reputation among investors not only in California, but also in the East. They are considered the most conservative investment of this type in the State.

WINTERSBURG

WINTERSBURG, Nov. 23.—The John Hurdle house on the boulevard, which was vacated this week by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yaeger, has been rented by Mr. and Mrs. Spillman, who have moved here from Garden Grove. Mr. Spillman is employed in the oil field at Seal Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurdle, of Hawthorne, owners of the property, were down Tuesday.

Robert Irwin is confined at her home with influenza.

Mrs. Roy Fox became ill Wednesday with influenza. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fox and two children, for whom Mrs. Roy Fox has been caring during their illness with the disease, are convalescing.

Members of the Jack Frost family, who have been ill with influenza, are improving.

Mrs. H. Friend, of Santa Ana, and Mr. Friend's mother were visitors in Wintersburg Wednesday, calling upon Mrs. W. D. Lavergne and her new son, Warren Taft De Lavergne.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McKenzie visited Wednesday in Long Beach with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sears.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sowers had as guests Monday and Tuesday, Mr. Sower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sowers; his brother, Stewart Sowers, and a friend, Tom Wride, who arrived Monday from their home in Durango, Colo., for a winter in California. They motored through and are at present in Los Angeles, where another son of Mr. and Mrs. Sowers is located.

Mrs. M. C. Hazard had as recent overnight guests in her home, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, friends from Los Angeles.

C. E. Lopp had the misfortune to step upon a nail Tuesday, running the sharp point almost through his foot. The nail was attached to a board and he he stepped upon it while at work in the oil fields.

Returning home, Mr. Lopp found Mr. Thouvenll, a friend from Norwalk, who formerly resided here, off duty from the oil fields as the result of having sustained an injured leg from stepping upon a broken floor of the derrick. Mr. Lopp's brother, Ernest Lopp, is convalescing from serious injuries sustained some weeks ago while at work in the oil fields. Mr. and Mrs. Thouvenll returned to their home Wednesday.

Sylvia Coker has been out of school all week as the result of influenza.

Norma Lee Lopp missed school Wedensday on account of illness.

Mrs. C. B. Turner is confined to home with the influenza.

Mrs. J. R. Edmunson, of Huntington Beach, visited Tuesday with Mrs. W. P. Treece.

Mrs. George Gothard has been in Long Beach assisting her daughter-in-law in the care of her baby daughter, who is ill with bronchial pneumonia. The child is now out of danger.

Mrs. Mary Doyle was nominated senior regent of the Mesaheart lodge and Mrs. Ethel Sebastian, also of this place, was nominated as recorder at Wednesday evening's meeting of the lodge. Mrs. M. C. Hazard, of Wintersburg, who is head of the bazaar committee of the lodge, announces that the bazaar will be held December 12.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crowder and Mr. and Mrs. John Sylvis, of Huntington Beach, cousins of Clarence Lopp, were Wednesday evening visitors in the Lopp home. Walter Merriott, of Bakersfield, formerly of Huntington Beach, was a visitor this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lopp.

Mrs. J. H. Pryor and sons, John and Dean Pryor, were dinner guests Wednesday evening of Mrs. Iva Masters.

LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Algot Nordstrom spent several days at their Thalia street studio this week.

Clarence Hinkle was praised for his painting, "Through the Kitchen Door," a study in color exhibited at the California Art show at the Los Angeles musemum.

Virginia Wooley, who has been away for several months in Alabama and later in New Mexico, has returned to Laguna.

Willard Sheets, member of the Laguna Art association, won the $100 first prize at the Arizona state fair for his canvas, "The Old Ranch."

Mrs. F. J. Schwankovsky, local representative of the MacDowell Foundation fund, expects to have the Woman's club here give a musicale and tea in January.

Mrs. Joseph S. Thurston, music chairman of the Laguna Beach Woman's club, and past president of the organization, is already making plans for a music week in May. On May 10 the music program of the club is to be "Music of Many Lands."

The recently organized choral society under the direction of Mrs. F. J. Schwankovsky is practicing at the studio of Miss Josephine Hills and expects soon to be read to take part in local entertainments.

SOME HISTORY OF BACON

The are of curing bacon, according to the English writers, Gerald R. Leighton and Louden M. Douglas, of the Royal Veterinary College, dates back to very early times. Salting of pork was then a necessity, as fresh meat was difficult to obtain during the winter. Edward Lisle, another English commentator of distinction, relates that bacon curing in the modern way was practiced in Wiltshire more than two hundred years ago.

One-third pound Eastern Bacon with each purchase of $1.00 or more (fresh meat up to 50c must be included.)

Puritan Beef

The Cudahy Packing Company brought a shipment of genuine corn fed eastern beef to the coast this week to be used at the opening of the Chula Vista Dog Races Thanksgiving Day.

As they use the loins of these cattle only, we were able to buy the remainder of this beef at no advance in price.

REMEMBER

To place your order early for that Thanksgiving corn fed Turkey, Geese, Ducks and Chickens which will be strictly fresh.

"Only last week, when I started shopping at Young's, did I learn why sometimes my meats had been good . . . other times very poor. The difference lies in knowing where to buy."

"What's the secret?"

"I'll tell you! . . . grain-fed meats from Young's. That's the secret. Grass-fed meats just aren't nearly so good . . . juicy . . . nor so tasty. And you can always be sure of the grain-fed kind . . . by shopping at Young's."

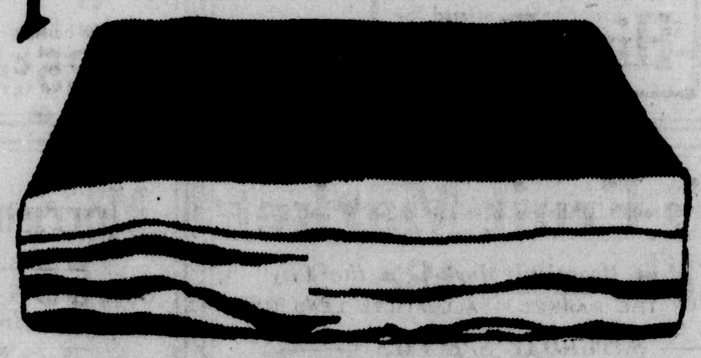
Cudahy's puritan Bacon



Finer Flavor

Cudahy's Puritan Bacon is unrivalled. Finer flavor and greater tenderness have made it famous.

Puritan owes its distinguished qualities to the special method of curing these choice young meats. This method diffuses the rich meat juices in a natural way without forcing or hurrying. It is therefore uniformly sweet, mild, tender and delicious. Broiled or fried, its very aroma tempts even the most delicate appetite.

Try Puritan and see how good it is—a tempting, wholesome, nutritious food, easily digested; fine for growing children as well as for grown-ups. Puritan Bacon is a delightful adjunct in the preparation of meat dishes, salads, etc. At your dealer's.

SAFEWAY STORES

Safeway Sets the Pace

Throughout the West Safeway's charges are the accepted measure of the greatest possible value in foods. Our success in lowering food distribution costs has forced others to try to do likewise. In order to survive, dealers and wholesalers alike have had to make at least some effort to put their own houses in order and eliminate waste. While they can hardly hope to equal our accomplishments, every effort along this line benefits you, as the consumer—and we are glad.

WRITER FLAYS COL. HOUSE AS SUPERFICIAL

LONDON, Nov. 28.—(UP)—"His second-rate intelligence would never have passed muster in any position in even a minor state in Europe," is the estimate of Colonel House expressed by an Austrian, Karl Friedrich Nowak, whose book "Versailles," has just been published by Victor Gollancz, Ltd. The volume is a bitter and forensic treatment of the peace conference.

The breach between Colonel House and President Wilson is attributed by Nowark to the Colonel's "superficiality." The author states that House forgot to inform the president that Italy had entered a special proviso regarding the ninth of the famous fourteen points. Nowak also says that it was Colonel House who agreed, in the name of the President, that no fixed sum or period of payment for German reparations should be made.

Nowak even goes so far as to suggest that Colonel House hardly knew what it—the peace conference—was all about. "Amid the stern realities of the conference table this much sought-after and much-feted man never grasped what was going on between those present. He seldom grasped or appreciated what was said to him on political topics, never recognized the core of a subject, never detected contradictions. Some times the open and engaging soldier entirely failed to comprehend what was being discussed with him."

The Austrian author is particularly critical of President Wilson's qualifications for the position he held at Versailles." The President," he says, "had devoted no attention to the origin of the war; had neglected the origins of the peace treaty; had not even inquired whether it had any origins." Nowak states that Wilson needed a man "of special capacity for the development of his pet principle of 'pet consultation.'" and therefore appointed House as head of the Committee of Inquiry.

"The American President," says the author, "had not considered for a moment whether the invasion of Belgium had anything to do with the origin of the war, and the burden of responsibility for it. He only saw the fact of the invasion."

Nowak's book is regarded here more as the personal impressions of an Austrian historian, gained from conversations with members of the inner circle, and a study of private and official documents, than a contribution to history. Although the author presumably wishes to see friendly relations re-established between European states, it is doubted whether his book will do anything to help this cause.

SAINTS INVADE ALHAMBRA FOR TITLE CONTEST

pass and receive passes and they can throw them on the dead run after the fashion of Art Parisien, the little southpaw from Notre Dame who beat U. S. C. two years ago.

Coach Hobbs is sure to have something new cooked up for the Saints tomorrow and they will have to be alert. Hobbs knows Santa Ana will have a defense of some kind for Mohler so the Moor skipper may use his ace as a bluff early in the set-to and let some unsung ball-carrier, like Fullback Neagle or Halfback Farr, punch the line or run the ends.

In the final analysis, however, Alhambra is certain to depend on the Mohlers, particularly Orville, for its touchdowns, if any. Mohler is tremendously fast and has a beautiful change of pace which often fools the opposings ends and secondary defense and Mohler relies on this as much as his shiftiness to get him past the line of scrimmage and into the open where he simply is a dodging demon.

S. A. Strong At End

But Mohler has not encountered a pair of defensive ends the equal of Cooke and Hearn, of Santa Ana, who don't have many bad days. If the Saint flanks get any help from their tackles Mohler may have his troubles over getting started.

Coach "Tex" Oliver, the clever young Southerner who has been remarkably successful here, worked up a defense that stopped Mohler cold when the Saints and the Moors tangled in Santa Ana last season but in justice to Mohler it must be stated that the boy was just then recovering from injuries which had kept him on the sidelines for weeks. The Santa Anans won that day, 25 to 7, and Mohler got away just once when he ran about 25 yards to a touchdown on a reverse play. If Oliver bottles up Mohler as well tomorrow his team should win for Alhambra will have a tough time preventing the Saints from scoring at least once.

Alhambra utilized some of the same general type of plays as Santa Ana so the Saint team's reaction will be interesting. All other teams have been completely bewildered by the Moors' off-tackle thrusts just as much as Santa Ana's trickery often has baffled its foes but Alhambra will not have the offensive equipment with which Oliver has armed his boys for their championship shot.

Line Play Important

Fancy scoring plays won't get anywhere, however, unless the offensive line outcharges the defending forwards and Saturday's battle is going to be won or lost in the scrum where, according to critics, the two strongest lines that have been developed in the league for many years will oppose each other. The same lines clashed in 1927 and Santa Ana was better but Alhambra's line has charged better and fought harder this year.

Santa Ana has not exactly been under wraps in its earlier encounters but is not going to withhold anything tomorrow. It may be stated on reliable authority that Santa Ana is coming out on the field determined to score first if possible. Captain "Doc" Hearn, the rangy end who will call the plays in the huddle, will be under orders to go the limit, to spare nothing. There are some well informed football men who have the opinion that the first quarter will decide the issue. Alhambra never has played from behind. Santa Ana has been behind in almost all of its games. The first quarter usually is a nightmare for the Saints but if they come out fighting and charging tomorrow there is no telling what may happen to the great Alhambra team.

All regulars on both teams were reported in good condition today and so neither side will be handicapped by having any of its best men unfit. Al Reboin, Frank Wurster and Clarence Spencer, the local trio who were injured in practice Wednesday afternoon, are much improved and will all be ready to start.

Probable Lineups Announced

Coach Oliver is always reticent about announcing a probable starting lineup but he has indicated that Captain Hearn and "Red" Cooke will be on the ends, Wurster and Stanley Hardin at tackle, Gene Olsen and Kenneth Manderscheid at guard and Curt Youel at center. Reboin will play quarter, Spencer and Don Crumley halfbacks and Jack Fredericks at full. The Saint reserve strength is good for most of the places and several changes are sure to be made regardless of the way the action goes.

Coach Hobbs has been ill and was not even on the Moors' practice field yesterday but it was said that he probably would start Seixas and Coar at end. Captain "Curly" Graham and Viel at tackle, Rippey and Meisheimer at guard and Carroll at center. Orville Mohler at quarter, Farr and Brosseau at half, and Neagle at full are expected to compose the Moor backfield. Norman Mohler might start at quarter and give way later to his older brother or he may play half instead of Brosseau.

The attention of Santa Ana fans again is called to the fact that the game will start at 2:15 instead of 2:30 as in the past.

The officials were announced today as follows: Referee—Cyril Tipton; Umpire—Motts Blair; Head Linesman—Art Reinhart.

SCENES WHICH WILL GREET HOOVER

When President-elect Herbert Hoover, Mrs. Hoover and party reach Chile on the South American good-will trip, scenes like these shown here will greet them. At the top is the capital, at Santiago, Chile, where Hoover will be received by the Chilean congress. In the center are cadets of Chile's "West Point," who will parade for the presidential party during the Santiago visit. Below is pictured a street scene in the beautiful capital of Chile, Santiago, where the party will spend several days.

SPAIN'S 'FLYING INFANTE'

His Royal Highness, Infante Alfonso of Spain (left) is shown upon his arrival in America with his wife, the Princess Beatrix, and their son, Prince Alvaro. A royal air fan, the prince has come chiefly to look over American aviation activities while the princess, who is greatly interested in gardening and farm questions, says she wants to see one of the big American chicken farms. They posed for their pictures on the S. S. Majestic.

LARGE CAST IN 'SEVENTH HEAVEN'

the play that his had been one of the smoothest performances seen for many a day. J. Wylie Carlyle did a notable character bit as the Sewer Rat. His lines were few but his acting was excellent and he never lapsed from the character for a moment.

Kenneth Adams and William Homan both had prominent parts, the former as "Brissac" and the latter as "Maximilian Gobin," each appearing for the first time in a Community play. Adams had a very exacting role, which demanded his presence on the stage through the greater part of both the first and the third acts, and in which he made many feminine hearts flutter with his appearance in uniform. Maximilian Gobin was amusing with his superior airs as a street washer, but showed his inner kindness in the final act.

Minor parts in the play were largely character bits and brought several capable actors among young men of the city to the stage. It will be interesting to watch future developments of the work of Harry Edwards, who played "Recan"; Wilbur Hoke, who was the "Blonde"; Jack C. Baker, "Sergeant of Police"; Robert A. Quail, who was the lamplighter, "August Margo"; Blyth McCausland, the gendarme, and Lawrence Phillips, whose "Uncle Georges" was an excellent foil for the patient little "Aunt Valentina."

The Misses Pearl Camblin and Jewel Fletcher lent "atmosphere" to the street scene. Both long have been members of the association.

Alan Revill Plays

Marian Helm Williams directed the play. Musical numbers were confined to organ selections played by Alan Revill, who will play both tonight and Saturday, when the run of "Seventh Heaven" will close. Indications today pointed to the two closing nights as drawing unusually large crowds, for the ticket sale has been brisk for both nights.

STEAMER AGROUND OFF PHILIPPINES

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 23.—(UP)—The S. S. Steel Navigator today intercepted an SOS from the S. S. Sakamaru, saying it was agorund off the northwestern tip of Kasbate Islands, Philippines.

Later message reported heavy seas.

Although land was only 50 yards from the Sakamaru, waves were so high the crew was unable to land. The engine room of the Sakamaru was flooded.

The U. S. S. Memphis reported it expected to reach the Sakamaru this afternoon.

The Sakamaru was enroute from Hokkaido to Cebu with coal.

BONDS

By ELMER C. WALZER
(United Press Financial Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The New York stock exchange today broke all records for volume of business, 6,924,5000 shares of stock changing hands.

It was an irregular market, prices started upward rapidly at the opening in the face of heavily increased brokerage loans, sagging around the noon hour, and closing in widely divergent fashion.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—With stock exchange trading volume setting new records in the first four hours of the session today, it was expected that the final count would reveal the first 7,000,000 share day in history.

Dealings to 1:30 as compiled by the New York stock exchange totaled 5,812,000 shares, or at the rate of 7,585,570 shares for a full five-hour session.

Transactions to 2:30 amounted to 5,699,100 shares. To equal the record high made just a week ago at 6,733,500 shares the last fifty minutes trading would have to account for 1,034,400 shares.

Yesterday sales amounted to 3,817,600 shares at 1:30.

A vigorous rise in the morning was arrested arround noon by information at the New York federal reserve banw that it would give out an announcement at 1 p.m. and by the unexpected action of the governors of the exchange to close the market tomorrow.

CHICAGO BD. OF TRADE

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—(UP)—A bullish drive sent wheat higher on the Board of Trade today but profit taking developed and prices dropped late in the session. Fine harvesting and shipping weather promoted liquidation of December corn. Oats were strong. Both wheat and corn finished at the low points of the day.

At the close wheat was ⅝ to ½ cent lower, corn was down ¾ to 1¼ cents and oats was unchanged to ⅛ cent up. Provisions were sharply lower.

Avocados met a fairly good demand at 20@25c a pound for 25c@35c for Fuertas and 15@20c for seedlings.

Local green pod beans moved slowly at 5@6c a pound, with Blues at 8@9c, but Kentucky Wonders from Coachella Valley were higher at 9@10c a pound.

Good cucumbers were a little easier, some good stock from the Imperial Valley jobbing at $3.50@$4.00, mostly $1.50 a lug, with ordinary stock at $1.00@$1.25, and Arroyo Grande stock at $1.25@$1.50.

Grapes met slow demand at steady prices of 2c@2½c a pound for Emperors, 2@3c for Seedless, and 1½@2c for Cornichons and Malagas.

Imperial Valley grapefruit weakened to mostly $4.50 a box for the fancy grade, with choice at $3.50@$4.00.

Local lemons also weakened to a range of $5.00@$6.00 a box for fancy packed stock, with loose shipping stock at $1.50@$2.25.

Local Spanish onions held steady at $3.75@$4.00 per cwt. White Globes from the Stockton district jobbing on the street at $4.00@$4.50.

Potatoes held about steady, with lot sales of Stockton Burbanks reported at $1.40@$1.50 per cwt. Very fair to ordinary stock at $1.25@$1.35, and No. 1 Idaho Russets at $1.55.

Local tomatoes were dull at $1.00@$1.50 for the best, with some good San Diego county and Orange county stock as high as $2.00 a lug.

EVENING SALUTATION

There is one harp that any hand can play,
And from its strings what harmonies arise!
There is one song that any mouth can say,—
A song that lingers when all singing dies.
When on their beads our Mother's children pray,
Immortal music charms the grateful skies.
—Joyce Kilmer.

THE ELEVENTH HOUR OF THE COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE

Only a short period of time remains in which to fill the Community Chest in the period allotted to the campaign.

There are many people who, while they are anxious that the campaign shall succeed and are willing, if necessary, to do a certain amount, on the other hand, keep their subscriptions down to the very lowest point that they can and get away with it, willing, in case it is necessary, to increase it in order to succeed. There are a large number of these people, and while they are appreciated, their failure to give to the limit the first time they are seen, entails that much greater struggle on the part of the management because they must be seen the second time and the uncertainty of the balance causes great concern and worry.

There is the slacker who is so in spirit. He does everything that he can to avoid subscribing and working and if he is forced into a corner where he must do something he subscribes the least amount possible in order to keep the slightest vestige of self respect and then sometimes fails to pay what he does subscribe.

Then there are many people whose whole soul is stirred by the claims of the various institutions who are interested in every objective. Yet their income is so meager that it hardly meets their own absolute necessities and the appeal of the Community Chest has a sad tinge to them because of their inability to do what they would like to do. These people have an inward rejoicing when they see it succeed—they are that full in their souls. And we believe they are aiding tremendously in their quiet way with the others who have the ability to pay and maybe not as great interest as some of these who are unable to do so.

And then there is a large number of those, which seems to be increasing every year, who have caught a glimpse of what the Community Chest means to Santa Ana. They have caught the spirit of those who are putting their time and energy in these various agencies. They are touched by the infirmities of the children, and feel in their own life, by a sympathetic touch which they have with humanity everywhere, all the needs which are supplied by these various agencies. And with that income and resource, with which the Creator has blessed them in energy and money, they are doing their noblest and best in giving themselves and soliciting others.

We hope that this campaign will be a great success. We have faith to believe that it will succeed. It is a movement, fortunately, in which all can enter—some able only to give time; others, to give little time and a small amount of money; others, to give large amounts of time and money. But every one is able to do something, and if you have not done at this time, something, whether it be small or great, which it is possible for you to do, we hope that within the next twenty-four hours you shall do your part as a citizen, or as a parent, or as a friend to help the most important enterprise which is carried on in our city during the year.

"The Ladder," a lesson play, has closed up shop in New York with losses of $1,500,000. It certainly did prove to be a lesson for somebody.

NEW RULES FOR FOOTBALL

There are those interested in football who believe that the present rules which determine the winner are not indicative of the best team. So often a single fumble or a lucky play gives the victory to the team which plays the poorest game. The suggestion is made that first downs should be an element in the scoring, for these are more indicative of the superiority of a given team than the goals attained.

No doubt those who are responsible for the rules are glad to get any suggestions which will determine more accurately which is the better team, and how the game can be most interesting to the spectators who crowd the stadiums. No little of the intense interest in football today is due to the real criticalness of every move. The number of different plays, the penalties for infringements of the rules, and the stubborn opposition which can be put up even by an inferior team, give to a football game all the thrills that any one might reasonably expect.

It is quite likely that a great deal of this intense interest in football might be destroyed if so tame a matter as a first down counted toward victory. Baseball could not be more interesting if the score in part was determined by the number of men who reached first base. After all, there must be a goal to make a game interesting to those who sit on the side lines; and the difficulty in reaching that goal is what gives the thrill. Changes may be made in the football rules, but we doubt very much whether the suggestion of making first downs to count in the scoring would add anything to the interest of the game.

King George mispronounced a couple of words the other day. The way prominent people are falling down on their grammar, it wouldn't surprise us now if Gene Tunney were to split an infinitive.

TATTOOING TURKEYS

Turkey growers in Yakima, Washington, have become incensed by an epidemic of turkey thievery and members of their association have decided that all turkeys grown by them must be tattooed.

If this doesn't put an end to the thievery they are prepared to each one adopt a brand and file it with county officials and butchers thus making detection and arrest of thieves less difficult.

The ingenuity of these Yakima turkey growers deserves commendation. And the thieves, on the other hand, are so cheap and annoying that they deserve condemnation.

THE COMING SESSION OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT

The English parliament has been opened with all the pomp and pageantry of the early days. The king has ridden through the streets of London in the ancient coach, guarded by the "beaf eaters" from the Tower, and surrounded by the trapping of a bygone age. The government has placed in message upon the lips of the king, and while he refers to "my" army and "my" government he has about as much to do with them as the reader of this paper. He is simply the symbol of British nationality, just as the flag is with us.

The present session will probably be the last session of this parliament. A new election is slated for the spring. All parties will maneuver for position. Not much business will be done, but a great deal of fencing will take place to put the other party in wrong, and especially the party in power. Should the election be held now, it is quite doubtful whether Stanley Baldwin's party could be returned. But many things may happen before spring. There is little hope that either the Labor party or the Liberal party can gain a clear majority. The most that can be hoped for is a coalition government such as the one which preceded the present government. How long such a government can last is quite a question. Now that our own election is over we can take the time to watch the events in Britain. Much of what the English parliament does is of more or less immediate interest to us since we have become a world power.

A scientist finds cattle thrive on food wastes of the forests. Probably what started him on his research was the fact that a part of the human race has been breakfasting for years on sawdust.

TIME TO KEEP COOL

With conditions on as they are in Wall Street, with the prices of many stocks skyrocketing and nearly all reaching new levels, the temptation to take a chance comes with great power to larger numbers of people. We believe that we are entering into a great era of prosperity. The coming year will be as successful as probably any year in our history.

The legitimate purchase of stock in most of our great industrial instituoions of standing will prove of great value, but there are very few men who can know at the present excited state of the market, and with the various causes that are sending prices to new heights, which of the prices that are now being raised are justified or if any of them are justified. It is the line that is found on the graph somewhere between the ebb and flow of the price which is the dependable and safe one.

Many will continue to make money through buying and selling our margins, but the one who pursues it is bound to lose, and he may lose immediately. The legitimate purchaser should have the value thoroughly investigated and if it is higher than its real earning power warrants or will warrant, the fact that it is rising in price should not effect him.

Football's Value

Riverside Daily Press

Reports from Yale university just made public, show that football at that university last year drew $1,033,211 into the university treasury. Football has become a million-dollar business.

This, of course, will cause a good many people to shake their heads sadly and predict all sorts of dire things for an educational system that puts such great emphasis on football. But there is a brighter side to it.

Yale's report also showed that the university athletic association actually ended the season with a deficit of over $40,000. The profits from the football season were spent on other sports which do not support themselves. Baseball, rowing, hockey, basketball and track were made possible by the football income. If it had not been for the football profits, many students would not have been able to indulge in those forms of recreation.

And what is true at Yale is true at all other colleges and universities.

If we could see ourselves as others see us, we'd probably never want to take another look.

Governor Hunt Goes Out of Office In Arizona

Sacramento Bee

One of the results of the late election is the defeat of George W. P. Hunt, Democrat, for re-election as governor of Arizona. He will be succeeded by John C. Phillips, Republican, with a majority of about 4,000 over the incumbent.

This is very gratifying to the friends of the Boulder Canyon Dam project, which Hunt has fought long and persistently, at every opportunity.

It is said to be the first defeat he ever has sustained in the politics of his state.

Hunt was the first governor of Arizona and has held his office continuously. His present term is the sixth for which he has been elected.

He is quoted as saying in a recent political speech at Yuma:

"I'll be damned if California shall have any water from the Colorado river while I am governor."

But his term expires at the end of the year, and very likely also the power of his political machine, which he systematically built up and is said to have completely mastered in every particular.

Japan's Task

Riverside Daily Press

Japan, which jumped from medievalism to modernism in half a century's time, did not make the change without incurring several rather pressing social problems.

This is revealed in a report made to the recent Pan-Pacific conference by a Japanese Y. W. C. A. leader. She reported that Japan has nearly 1,400,000 children under 15 years of age working in factories or mines; that seven per cent of all Japanese children born each year are illegitimate; and that no less than 500 fathers and mothers have killed themselves and their children during the past three years—in nearly all cases because of poverty.

The Japanese surprised the world by their ability to pick up western culture almost over night. Evidently, however, the change brought rather knotty problems. The ability Jajan shows to solve these problems will give the rest of us a good indication of the real depth and power of the Japanese people.

'Vessels Large May Venture More But Little Boats Should Keep Near Shore'

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

AN OPEN LETTER

Dear Mr. Hoover:—People say
That the cantagion of your ardor
Will set this lazy U. S. A.
To stepping out and working harder,
That you will teach us, more and more,
The vice of idleness to master
And that it won't be long before
We do more work, and do it faster.

Efficiency, I learn you hold
As a profound and noble virtue,
You are persuaded, I am told,
That good hard work has never hurt you.
You are a man of intellect,
But none the less you are deluded
If for an instant you expect
That we shall work as hard as you did.

Some men work hard to pile up pelf
And grow fanatical about it
Some love mere labor for itself
And really cannot live without it.
But others—and I am one of these—
Prefer to lead a life of quiet
And live in unproductive ease
Although their souls may suffer by it.

I know, sir, that you're fond of toil
And that you're long accustomed to it—
As for myself, I don't recoil
From any work—if others do it.
Go to it, Herbert, if you must Put pep into this idle nation,
And make it prosper—but I trust
You won't attempt MY reformation.

Dr. Frank Crane's Friendly Talk

By Dr. Frank Crane

SERMON BY A SCIENTIST

The Scotch love sermons. A Scotchman would rather criticize the preacher than eat.

At the meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science held recently in Glasgow they showed this penchant. On the very day of our arrival in Scotland Sir Oliver Lodge's sermon was preached at the Wellington (United Free Church of Scotland) Church at Glasgow.

Never since the days of the Covenanters can the Scottish love of a sermon have led to more amazing scenes.

Although forty-four different sermons with a special allusion to the British Association were preached in the city this day the overflow from this one service filled every place of worship in the neighborhood.

Traffic was held up by the crowds and Sir Oliver had to give his sermon in full twice over.

Seven or eight thousand people were turned away.

It was a remarkable address, although the speaker was seventy-seven years of age, and a scientist, not a preacher.

He said that as far as the astronomer can see the same physics and chemistry, the same kind of atoms and the same laws of heat and light are found on the most distant star.

The distances between these stars throughout space are fearful and extend beyond the imagination.

Light from some of these stars has taken 140,000,000 years to reach us. We are now seeing things as they were 140,000,000 years ago.

Whatever we see has the same kind of atoms and the same chemical elements and is obedient to the same laws we have now. This shows that one mind brought the universe into existence and maintains it.

He said that it made all the difference in our outlook on the immense universe if we knew that once having become individuals we devloped a personality that would survive the death of the world and go on to all eternity.

It was a most solemn thought. He said we could not go out of existence even if we wanted to.

Our material body goes back to the earth and the soul continues.

He said he knew by direct experience that those whom we call dead have just been separated from their bodily mechanism.

Not a sound, not even a cough, could be heard in the church as the white-haired scientist spoke.

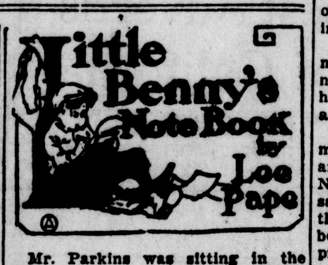
Little Benny's Note Book by Joe Pape



Mr. Parkins was sitting in the frunt room holding his chin in his hand and thinking, and pop came in saying, Ah there, Harvey, I understand that youll be my ferst and ony son in law in a cupple of days.

Yes, I was just thinking about it, Mr. Parkins sed. I was thinking it over and its a sollem thawt, he sed. Here I am today as usual a single man as free as the berds of the air you mite say, and in 48 hours Ill be legally and morally responsible for the welfare and upkeep of another human bean, its a sollem thawt, he sed.

Yes indeed, but this is no time to reflect on it, pop sed. Wat would become of the werld if all the young batchelors started to get logical insted of poetical? he sed.

Very true perhaps, but just in my present mood I cant help thinking wat a vast gulf there is between the butterfly existents of the single man, careless and foot loose without a thawt for the morrow, so to speek, wat an endless gulf there is between that and the married mans sollem responsibilities, Mr. Parkins sed. Not that I regret anything, of corse, but all a same its a serlous ideer to think about, he sed.

Very true, very true, but its every good citizens duty to make that grate sacrifice for the perpetuation of the grate human race and the amusement of the grate female speecies, pop sed. Look at me, Ive lost my hair and taken on a slite stummick in the noble cause, but Ive done my duty and Im contented, he sed.

Wich just then Gladdis came down, saying, My stars wat on erth are you 2 men holding forth to each other so sollemly? and pop sed, Wat do you sippose, you of corse. Allow me to congratulate you once agen, Harvey, my boy, your getting a fine gerl and one that wont stand any nonsents, even from you, he sed.

And him and Mr. Parkins shook hands and we all went in to suppir, being lam stew with almost enuff dumplings.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

WE ALL USE SHORTHAND

We all use shorthand whether we are stenographers or not.

I do not mean that we use shorthand in writing.

I mean that we use shorthand in our thinking.

Symbolism is to the executive's thinking what shorthand is to his secretary's writing.

Most of our thinking is done in symbols.

Symbols begin as expressions of thought.

Symbols end as substitutes for thought.

We actually use our minds and think—about religion, about politics, about education, about business—and out of our thinking an idea—a good idea—arises.

But the idea, in the form we first think it, is not easy to handle, to transmit, to use in the day's work; it has been floating about in our minds; we understand it, but we have not put it into easily understandable form; this is the next step.

We define it, we dramatize it, we find a symbol fo rit.

We want it in a neat and handy form that we can use next time without having to go to the trouble of thinking it through again.

As long as the problem remains the same, it is all to the good to have a symbol to apply to it more or less automatically.

It is good economy to think a thing through once and reduce the solution to a pat phrase or a symbol that can be used with little effort whenever the problem has to be faced, but the trouble is that symbols stand still and problems keep moving.

The result is that, at any given moment, we can be pretty sure that our problems have moved past the phrases, the catch-words, the symbols that we are applying to them.

A symbol that does not represent actual fact any longer is as dangerous to our minds as a diseased and decaying organ is to our bodies.

A symbol that is an expression of experience is good.

A symbol that is a substitue for experience is bad.

We must use our symbols as tools of living.

We muset be on guard lest our symbols become tyrants.

Politics, religion, education, science, morals, the family—all these are carrying a heavy load of obsolete symbols.

The greater and the more sustained passion for reality with which, as individuals, we continuously reinterpret our symbols, the less necessity there will be for widespread radical revolts against outworn symbols.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

THOSE SWEATERS

"The heat is on, so please take off your sweaters and hang them in the wardrobe."

The class looked responsive. They nodded. All but Becky. Becky never nodded. She always shook her head, when she made any sign at all which was seldom.

The next morning everybody removed their sweaters except Becky and Norman and Edwin. "Becky, Norman, Edwin, you forgot what I said about sweaters. Hurry. Get them off and into the wardrobe before the bell rings. Hurry. The piano is beginning."

Assembled in dress parade of course. No sweaters is the rule. In all the seried rows of snowy blouses and gay neckties, just one red sweater shone. That was Becky's.

After assembly a massenger came with a note. "Please remind the children that no sweaters are to be worn in the building. It is not good for the children and it spoils the appearance of the room. Yours, C. C."

C. C. meant principal. "O dear. All because of Becky. A note from the office first thing, just because that little bit of nothing-at-all never does a thing she's told. I'll fix her."

"Becky, didn't I tell you not to wear that sweater? Didn't I tell you to take it off and hang it in the wardrobe? First thing this morning I reminded you of th Now you march yourself. Take it off. And sit in the back seat hereafter. I don't want to see you."

Becky lifted her voice and howled her distress. "My mother told me to wear it. My mother told me not to take it off. I can't take it off. I won't take it off. I wo sit in the back seat. I wont, I won't—"

"All right. I don't mind. Take yourself and the sweater out to the principal's office and tell him you won't take it off. I'm trying to get my work done. I can't be bothered with you. Out you go."

It took Becky all morning session to arrive in the office. She stood in the hall until a monitor found her and directed her to move on. She stuck her tongue out at him and he in wrath went in and told her teacher. "I don't care what she did. Don't interrupt me about that child again."

Next the janitor found her. "Please, Miss, here's Becky. She's in the hall. It's against the rules, Miss. Really. Better not let the head find her there. Excuse me, Miss, shall I shove 'er in?"

"You shove her out and don't annoy me about her again. I'm busy." And next the school visitor found her, dutifully stuck her head in the doorway and beckoned the teacher. "Here's Becky. Oout in the hall," she whispered. What shall I do with her? You want her?"

"No. I sent her to the office. I don't want to see her or hear from her of from anyone else about her today. I've had nothing but her and her sweater since daylight."

Then the principal found her. He sent for the teacher. He sent for Mrs. Becky. "I neve said a word to her about the sweater. She asked me could she wear her sweater and I said yes. How'd I know?"

So. At sweater time, send a printed circular home. That's the best way anyway. Print the word in the home newspaper. That's the way to get word home, anyway. It's astonishing what one red sweater can do to a school.
